Along the Sports Horizon

By BILL LANG

After sweeping champions from their thrones, setting up new dynasties in every conceivable field and whisking unknowns from oblivion to stardom, the 1934 sports cavalcade reaches its journey's end within a few hours.

To many, 1934 will go down in sporting history as the era which marked the return of the "big gate"—a very important sporting element strangely missing from the American scene since 1930.

The sports picture fairly abounded with glittering personalities headed by those redoubtable Dean brothers who crowned a sensational season on the mound for the St. Louis Cardinals with a quartet of sparkling World Series performances.

Before a thrill-soaked crowd at Long Island City on the night of June 14, the ring's most coveted crown—the world' heavyweight championship came back to the U. S. A. when the clowning Max Baer scored a technical knockout over Primo Carnera after flooring the giant defender no less than eleven times.

Less than a month later the great Carl Hubbbell, on the mound for the National Leaguers in their all-star game with the American nine, struck out Ruth, Gehrig, Foxx, Simmons and Cronin in succession.

And so it swept onward through the months—this sporting cavalcade. Let's hop the bandwagon for a short trip through the year just as a reminder of some of the season's highspots.

January—A year of upsets started off auspiciously when the Columbia Lions defeated Stanford at the Rose Bowl to register the east's first win in the classic since 1920. Babe Ruth, who once drew $80,000 a year, signed on the dotted line for $35,000.

February—A slumbering sports world was aroused from its midwinter lethargy to bow in tribute to the memory of a great leader—John J. McGraw, who passed away on February 25 after waging a game but losing battle against the ravages of disease.

March—A brilliant burst of speed by Glenn Cunningham, the Kansas flash, enabled him to lower the world indoor mile record to 4:08.4 at the Knights of Columbus games in New York and Primo Carnera defended his heavyweight title in a listless Miami engagement with Tommy Loughran. Walter "Rabbit" Maranville, a resident of this city and eternal infielder of the Boston Braves, broke his leg in an exhibition game and everybody, except Rabbit, wrote finis to the Maranville career. But Walter's back again and promises to be in the Boston lineup when the curtain rises on another season in the spring.

April—Play ball! The baseball season opened with crowds estimated at 187,000 watching the major leaguers go through their paces.

May—The United States beat Great Britain in the Walker Cup matches for the eighth successive year. The British amateur golf title went to W Lawson Little, Jr. Wild Bill Cummings wins the Indianapolis 500-mile race, averaging 104.2 mph.

June—Olin Dutra won the U. S. golf open and Max Baer handed out a title defeat to Carnera. Cunningham again shattered the mile mark, doing the stretch in 4:06.7 to beat Bill Bonthron, who later turned the tables to defeat Cunningham in the quest for the N. C. A. A. crown.

July—America's challenge to regain the Davis Cup failed again as England won the finals, 4-1. Paul Runyon took the P G. A. crown at Buffalo. Babe Ruth hit his 700th homer and drew his 2000th walk.

August—Another of baseball's old guard passed away with the death of Wilbert (Uncle Robbie) Robinson.

September—Fred Perry of Australia walked away with the U. S. tennis title while the U. S. amateur golf crown goes to Lawson Little for his second major triumph of the year. Rainbow retains America Cup with victory over Endeavor. Cardinals clinch National League pennant in a whirlwind finish.

October—The Dean brothers pitched the Cardinals to a spectacular World Series title. Joe Cronin sent to the Boston Red Sox in a record deal said to involve $250.000. Football edges into the sports picture with an amazing number of early season upsets

November—John A. Heydler resigned as president of the National League and is succeeded by Ford Frick, newspaperman. Minnesota sweeps through to an undefeated season and national recognition. Alabama gets Rose Bowl invitation. Notre Dame beats Army in an upset before 80,000 fans.

December—Slade Cutter's field goal gives Navy its first decision over Army in thirteen years. News association poll Dizzy Dean as outstanding athlete of year.

HAPPY NEW YEAR

CATHOLIC LEAGUE

Tipping the thousand mark twice. St. Michael's bagged all three games in their match with Blessed Sacrament. The shelling was particularly heavy in the final encounter, Ehrmantraut, Schoeneberger and Szeles winding up with games of 225, 233 and 222 for a 1039 score, just 38 pins better than the opposition.

Ehrmantraut finished with a 617 count, Schoenberger had 620 while Szeles hit 687. Ernst's 579 was high for Blessed Sacrament.

The league-leading St. John's outfit took two of three encounters from H. R. A. A. with President Barney Cahill in the leading role. Barney massaged the maples for a fine 627 score to lead his team to their double-decision. The H. R. A. A. boys took the second game by an even 100 pins, rolling up a 1007 count. Scheuch had 201 and 212; Hughes, 212; Gliechauf, 213; Streb, 233 and Weber 226.

Ed Ford, the league's leading pinner, turned in the brightest individual performance of the week, smashing out a record-breaking 694 score with games of 236, 257 and 201. Despite his score, Corpus Christi dropped a pair of contests to St. Boniface. Colucci of the Bonnies collected a 627 to top his team.

St. Andrew's raced to a triple decision over St. Stanislaus in the other match of the week. Fess did the heavy shelling for the winners, piecing together games of 213, 236 and 208 for a 657 total. The boys from St. Stanislaus were decidedly off form, topping 900 only once.

KNIGHTS OF ST. JOHN LEAGUE

Triple victories were the order of the day in the Knights of St. John circuit.

The leading St. Boniface outfit gathered up a 2854 count for three easy wins over St. Bernard's. Deil with 606 and Ritz with 617 led the attack of the Bonnies while Hill's 509 was best for St. Bernard's.

St. George's trimmed St. Mauritius in three straight contests rolling all games over the 900 mark. Stoesser, with 583, was high for the winners while Diringer contributed a nice 546 for the losers.

The St. Eustace boys put up a classy exhibition in winning three games from SS. Peter's and Paul's. Eckert with 621 led the victory parade while Schlueter contributed a 583. Rossenbach's 545 was top for SS. Peter's and Paul's.

Cathedral lost three games to St. Michael's in a match which saw only one double century contest. That one was rolled by Heberle, whose 546 total was high.

Clyde Boy Scouts Played Santa Claus Christmas To Poor

By HAROLD NICHOLS

Clyde—Instead of the traditional good turn daily, St. John's Troop 116 of Boy Scouts did many good turns on Christmas Day when they spread yuletide cheer to the needy families in Clyde.

Through the co-operation of their pastor, the Rev. Joseph V. Curtin, they apportioned approximately 450 pounds of beef, 50 bushels of potatoes, 200 quarts of milk, 200 pounds of cheese, canned goods and other articles.

Father Curtin worked with Edward Redder, scoutmaster, and the Rev. Francis H. Turner, assistant pastor and troop organizer, in seeing that the children of the less fortunate families of the town learned that there was a Santa Claus. Old Saint Nick was well represented by his emisaries, the Boy Scouts of St. John's School.

Saturday, December 22, was the first anniversary of the organization of the parish troop and the members celebrated the event in this charitable manner It has been many years since Clyde has seen such a concentrated co-operative effort in behalf of the needy. In the comparatively brief history of the troop this beneficence is their most outstanding accomplishment in a year of varied activities.

As a further aid to the needy, Father Curtin announced at the Masses last Sunday that the proceeds of the collections on New Year's Day will go to the poor. Father Curtin, who is in touch with the welfare situation in Clyde better than the majority of residents, cited several cases in which aid is needed to tide families over the vicissitudes of winter.

Still occupying the spotlight of the parish's interest, the troop this week inaugurated a police patrol system to protect school children in traffic. With their Sam Browne belts distinguishing them, boys are stationed at several intersections in the village. Cooperation of motorists has been requested.

Boys Their Interests

With the New Year at hand what resolution are you going to make? Some boys retire for an hour and write out whole paragraphs of what they would like to do. Then they forget about it. Better to make just one constructive resolution and stick to it. What would we advise? It is very simple. Just obtain a copy of an old book that is ever new—The New Testament. That's half of the resolution. Then read a little bit each day—say ten minutes. That's the other half. Very simple.

Why read the 'New Testament'? Because it is the story of Christ, of His words and deeds; because never in the history of the world do men need Christ as they do today. Individually and socially we need Jesus in our world today. And Youth needs Him especially. The older people have lived their day; they can no longer influence. Youth must apply their knowledge of Christ to save the world. The 'New Testament' is the study book for the knowledge of Christ.

They speak of the 'Revolt of Youth' But who are responsible for this 'Revolt'? Not Youth but Age. Rousseau who said that a child's undisciplined nature was good if only not checked by commandments; Freud who applied this to sex and encouraged everyone to free themselves from temptation by giving way to sin; then Dewey, the American, who popularized this claptrap for our American Public schools. Why then blame Youth if they 'express themselves?' Why say Youth is revolting when they are taught to revolt by their elders? It is rather Age muddying the clear pool of Youth. The Catholic Youth Movement is concerned at the present time in throwing out of society these three quacks and bringing back Christ. That is why you should read the New Testament.

But we hear the 'New Testament' read every Sunday from the pulpit? You hear bits of the 'New Testament'—bits that you have heard so often that you fail to see their greatness. Then often disturbance or poor reading interferes.

Besides you seldom hear the Epistle read; and that is St. Paul, the mighty thinker and saint. Reading the 'New Testament' will give a complete view of Christ's life and St. Paul's great thoughts and aspirations on the life of his Master.

Lastly, you might listen to Father Coughlin's addresses over the radio to give you a Christian and militant view of modern civilization and its problems. No one speaks with more information or more courage than Father Coughlin; and certainly he is one of the few who are applying Christ to the ailments of modern society. More power to him and his efforts to direct modern youth in their difficulties and problems!

NEWS GASHES: Camp Stella Maris are planning their annual 'Pow-Wow' for some time in January. All campers will receive news of this by mail and in this column.—The Parochial Basketball League is all set and will commence New Year's week. The following teams are in: Holy Redeemer, St. Theresa, St. George, St. Mary's, St. Ambrose, Holy Apostles and St Lucy's. Schedules will be sent this week by mail. —Aquinas is going to have a basketball team. Good luck!—The Columbus Squires have two basketball teams, a Junior and Senior.

We wish to sound a keynote to our carrier boys for the coming year. It can be summed up in two words—promptness and perseverance. Promptness in delivering papers, sending in returns, making reports of stops and changes of address. Perseverance in your efforts to get new subscribers. A third word beginning with P—Pluck, will carry you through to success and bring returns in money earned.
