Rochester Diocesan Council of the National Council of Catholic Women

Office: 1920 Columbus Civic Centre, 50 Chestnut Street

In addition to those previously mentioned, Mrs. Richard Kalb and Mrs. Elizabeth Dean were among the representatives from Rochester at the recent N. C. W. meeting in Canandaigua.

Recent renewals of affiliations are: Court Joan of Arc 230, Waverly; Immaculate Heart of Mary, St. Alphonsus Church, Auburn; Rosary and Altar Society, St. Patrick's Church, Elmira; Rosary Society, Holy Family Church, Auburn.

In the preface of the February number of the Monthly Message, Miss Katherine R. Williams of Milwaukee, First Vice-President of the N. C. W., urges that we check ourselves on the use we have made of material received.

Every organization receives the N. C. W. Monthly Message, as well as a copy of Catholic Action.

Miss Williams concludes her message: "I shall not add our prayers, as well as our work, to support our leaders in this and all our Council activities, doing our part, remembering 'The continual prayer of a just man availeth much' and that 'Faith without works is dead'."

The third page of the February Monthly Message is devoted to the work of the National Committee on Industrial Problems.

Under the leadership of the Rev. Stuart G. Hogan, members of this group have been studying the Encyclical of Pope Leo XIII, Rerum Novarum.

In this connection, it is of interest that Miss Dorothy Day, editor of the Catholic Worker, is to be guest speaker at a dinner to be given at the Columbus Civic Center on Monday evening, Feb. 11, under the auspices of the Catholic Women's Club.

The drive for sustaining members of the Rochester Diocesan Council will close with a meeting in Parlor B, Columbus Civic Center, on Friday, Feb. 16 at 2 P. M.

St. George's Sodality has inaugurated the question box among the various parishes in progress are a Valentine's Dance, subscription for books for the Sodality library and the splendid work of preparing the fittings for the sanctuary and built. Very few sodalities can experience the deserving pride of witnessing the sacrifice of the Mass offered upon an altar and in a sanctuary through their members.

It is a unique feature of St. George's Sodality that meetings are held following the general Communion on Sodality Sunday. Miss Isabel Yraus is Prefect.

Miss Elinor Welch has succeeded Miss Susanne McCarthy as president of St. Mary's Sodality. St. Mary's Sodality holds its meetings twice a month.

We offer our best wishes to the newly formed sodalities at Mother St. Margaret's, St. Margaret Mary and Holy Cross parishes.

Holy Rosary Sodality caught that infectious fever for a roller skating party and will indulge to their hearts content in this sport. The publicity committee announces the date for a special Holy Rosary supper on Feb. 12 with the Director and Prefect as guests.

Immaculate Sodalists are looking forward to Parents Banquet on Feb. 25. Final plans for the banquet will be made at the February meeting.

In keeping with Catholic Press Month Immaculate's Catholic Literature Committee has planned an exhibit, a review of the pamphlet, "Nicky" and a review of one of Rene Guenon's recent books.

The Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes coincides with the date of the Sodality meetings. We can think of nothing more appropriate.

Spending of Catholic Press Month are you planning your share in interesting Catholics in an intelligent understanding and enjoyment of Catholic Literature? We suggest book reviews, a subscription in the Catholic Courier, a visit to the Catholic Evidence Library, a list of suggested reading.

We've got to the place where we must develop irrigation projects to enrich more land, to get more tax money to pay other farmers to raise less. Unravel that if you can.

AS A Store, we have a mission, and a duty, which may not have been clearly understood by everybody.

That mission is to bring to Rochester the new and smart attire that is in fashion.

That duty is to make these fashions easily available to every miss and woman in the community we serve.

To fulfill that mission and the discharge of that duty, we make shopping at Forman's as easy, as pleasant, and as stimulating to her who must watch her pennies as we do those to whom price is nothing.
