What's in a name? Plenty, especially when that name is associated with an athletic team connected with a Catholic parish.

With the rise of Catholic teams in the baseball, bowling and basketball fields there is an attempt to eliminate some of these verbal misuses for obvious reasons.

At last, Rochester is witnessing one of those famed Four Motors of Notre Dame.

Leaving a set of sparkling pin performances behind, Andy Varipapa departed for other fields this week much to the sorrow of Rochester's bowling enthusiasts.

Boys Their Interests

The CATHOLIC SCOUTS of Rochester will hear Mass in a body on Sunday morning at St. Boniface Church.

A professor from Northwestern University addressed many of the Rochester Social Workers last week. His topic was the use of leisure.

That is one of the principal reasons why there is a Parochial Basketball League.

The Columbus Civic Center has 800 boys registered in the physical department.

Who is a "puff-blower" one who refuses to give the truth? Editors and the half-baked liberals have refused to believe that there was an enforced famine in Russia.
