MOONLIGHT MANOR

A Romantic Story With Scenes Laid in the Genesee Valley

By AGNES HORSCH HOFMASTER

(Continued From Last Week) Up and down, eight steps, the way, eight steps that way. Dr. Orren Kennedy had trudged all night

The Fairy Prince Every child in the great hospital feared the tall, fairy-story telling Doctor Orrie. They loved his eyes, they loved his smile, they loved the feel of the long, steady life-giving hands that handled them so care- fully

Not Afraid "Of course, Prince Alie knows. Alie isn't afraid to go to meet him, either. So I'll let it be there where the bluebirds are made into a wreath every morning for Lady Mary, like you know, but I'll give a little bit of the gold I might get lost all alone."

To London to see the Queen? "Certainly."

And Oh God he had failed to bring her back to the Kingdom of Home. But he held her, as he had promised. All the Pages of the Great Prince took her hand from him. And he wished so how he wished that they had taken his hand too.

And that's all that was Dr. Rip- pell who had tried to imitate Ken- nedy's methods with the children and didn't succeed.

1935 MORE THAN 100 YEARS OF SERVICE

Even though they could not under- stand and knowing his skill, the splendid team "his time" and the knife, they urged him again and again to use it on Alie. It took him a year to make up his mind to do it. But the sight of her laugh- ing little face growing whiter and more otherworldly by day, prompt- ed him at last to take that one chance. He was the only one who dared. And he failed.

All of them are good. And everyone is to the point. Decided LaRue, meeting with LaRue's fine forehead and squinting his eyes.

PRESS DRIVE OF HOLY NAME GETS RESULTS

Elmira The annual election of officers was held at the meeting of the Holy Name Society of St. Peter & Paul's Church...

A list of societies which obtained the best results last fall were those which made a complete canvass of their parishes. For the remaining two weeks of our campaign we are suggesting that those societies which have not done so already, make such a canvass. Those societies which have already made such a canvass should try at least a recheck canvass of their Holy Name members. Archbishop Mooney has given us a goal for which every Holy Name Society in the Diocese should aim. The Holy Name Society of the Holy Catholic Church of the Holy Name Society has undertaken this campaign for the COURIER as a real work of Catholic Action. By united and continued effort we can attain the goal the Archbishop has set.
