

True Art Flows From Religion Famed Viennese Actor Declares

By DR. FREDERIC FUNDER (Vienna Correspondent, N. C. W. C. NEWS SERVICE). Vienna—One of the most prominent of living actors, Raoul Aslan, a member of the Vienna "Burgtheater" (State Drama Theater), for a hundred years the first German theater of the world, recently gave a public lecture in which he made a stirring avowal of his conviction that ideal production can be found only where it flows out of religious thinking, out of the consciousness of the obligation to God.

Mayor, Pastor Among Speakers At Ithaca Boy Scouts Dinner

Ithaca—Members of Troop 12 of the Ithaca Council, B. S. of A., were guests of the local chapter 277, Knights of Columbus, at a dinner given at the K. of C. Home on Thursday, Feb. 22. At the completion of the dinner, Grand Knight Thomas Solan introduced Scoutmaster G. K. Loveless as toastmaster. Mr. Loveless extended the thanks of the troop to all of those who had helped in making the dinner possible, and then called on Junior Assistant Scoutmaster Ken. Loveless for a brief account of the past activities of the troop. Brief remarks were made by Father John Brill and J. Lawrence Smith, scoutmaster of Troop 20. Father William Byrne, the next speaker, commented on the increased interest which the Catholic Church is taking in scouting, and complimented Mr. Loveless on his work as scoutmaster.

Young Novice Takes Vows As Bent, Aged Sister Renews Hers

By M. MASSIANT (Paris Correspondent, N. C. W. C. NEWS SERVICE). PARIS—A particularly affecting event took place at the Mass celebrated on the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the convent of the Action de Graces at Maunon in Brittany when, at Communion, two Sisters knelt side by side, one bent and aged and the other a young novice. The novice was the latest to enter the convent and had just made her first vows. The other was Mother Mary Joseph of Jesus, the last survivor of the founders of the Congregation. She renewed vows made fifty years ago.

(Continued from Page One) be on the watch for priests and not to allow priests here." I then returned to Madrid. He then went to another mission, where he received information Jose Blanco, municipal president of La Juntas, had gone to Guernsey city to place a complaint against him, charging that Father Balderrama had been administering in the mission of Basuilh. The priest then fled to Chihuahua City.

Pope Praises Exalted Position Of Priesthood

(Continued from Page One) how many times during the Holy Year of 1925, when I was in Rome, receiving pilgrims accompanied by clergy and seminarians, he especially reminded me of the "off" that came to them from the cross to be the ministers of the Redemption to each soul, and to the whole world. "And behold," the Holy Father said, "when the last days of the Holy Year, extended to the whole world, draw near, behold! Exalted places are to be made, and the real exemplar of holy priesthood. Therefore we are very grateful to Divine Providence that permits us to take this magnificent light from under the bushel and to put it on a stand. What does the world, in fact, all the remaining world outside of the Holy Land, know of the priest? The world is easily informed of many false and untrue things, and of so many other real nullities, and this is really one of the condemnations of the world—and, infatuated with those nullities, it passes over with indifference and scoffing real grandeur and reality.

Offer Special Ice Cream For St. Patrick's Day

St. Patrick's Day celebrations will not be complete without "sham-rock" design individual molds of ice cream as produced by Bartholomay Co. Inc. Made of Golden Vanilla Ice Cream frozen in realistic forms. This specially designed ice cream will make an appropriate and tasty addition to the St. Patrick's Day dinner or supper parties. The Bartholomay Co. Inc. recently installed a New Type Vogt Ice Cream Freezer which freezes ice cream in just a few seconds, producing a much smoother and more delicious product. By the old method it took from 45 to 60 minutes to produce the most favorable operating conditions.
