Along the Sports Horizon

By BILL LANG

The opening date—April 22.
The place—Culver Hall
The expected entry—175 to 200 teams.

The event—third annual Holy Name bowling tournament sponsored bournament sponsored by the Catholic Men's Bowling Association.

There's the news which Rochester Catholic pinners—some 1,000 of them, more or less—have been awaiting for the past few weeks.

Announcement comes from Secretary Harold T. "Butch" Johnson following a meeting of league officers and directors.

In deference to the committee in charge of the state pinning tournament, this announcement was timed so as to come on the closing date for entries in that event.

With the opening date set, the association executives are now readying the tournament machinery. Posters are being sent to all bowling halls and some missionary work in the nature of "pep talks" will be done throughout the various sections of the city.

Tourney officials are anxious to eclipse last year's record of 140 odd teams and they believe they can do it before the closing of entries on April 17. Of course to achieve that aim, support is needed from every quarter, especially those teams in the vicinity.

If the expected entry materializes, the tournament probably will run from ten days to two weeks.

There is no change in the entry fee which will be $3.75 a team. Johnson announces that of this amount, 25 goes back into team prizes. An alley fee of $2.50 is charged against each team and the remaining 25 cents covers secretarial work and other expenses.

This year no teams with an average of more than 900 will be permitted in competition. Class A covers teams with averages ranging from 825 to 900 and Class B includes those under 825.

How is a check made on these averages?

If a man bowls in a league his season average, certified by the league secretary, is accepted.

If a man is not bowling in a league but did bowl last year his last year's average is accepted. If a man has not bowled in two years he is figured at 185.

Bill Blank of Holy Redeemer's is acting president of the association replacing Ed Hefter, who tendered his resignation several weeks ago. Barney Cahill, Catholic League president, has been advanced to first vice-president while Ed Ford is second vice-president. Bill Woerner of course is treasurer and the directors include Joe Englert, Joe Mueller, R. Charlish, Joe Melville, Andy Wheat, Angelo Pillettere, Ray Downs, Ed Kolb, Al Tarharr, Gene Austing and Joe Frank.

Rumblings have been heard in the sacred precincts of Dutchtown lately.

The alleged reason: Holy Family is building up a powerful baseball team for the 1935 season.

Rumors are flying so fast that it's hard to single out any one and accept it as a fact. However, the next few weeks should bring some definite information about whose who and what's what in Catholic diamond circles.

Those St. Stanislaus boys certainly brought back a fair share of gold and glory from the ABC at Syracuse.

After tipping the maples for 2749 in the five-man event, the boys from Hudson Avenue did yeoman work in the singles and doubles. Orsell and Graslak took temporary possession of second place in the two-man event Monday afternoon with a 1223. Orsell hitting 642 wound up with 247. Rizzo and Kwiatowski were right behind with 1198.

In the singles, Graslak lashed out 591, Orzell had 578 while Rizzo and Kwiatkowski hit 528 apiece.

From across Lake Ontario comes real news about Hugh Marks, who pastimed in the Catholic Baseball League last season.

Hugh, a junior at the University of Toronto has been named quarterback on the all-Canadian football team recently selected for a national magazine. He's one of the brightest stars in the Canadian sports firmament and his prowess doesn't stop on the gridiron or baseball diamond. It extends to the basketball court where Hughie was a member of the Varsity team which bagged seventeen victories in eighteen starts.

You've probably heard of Hughie's brothers — Bill and Tom. The latter was a member of that Aquinas wonder team in 1926 which nearly lifted the national Catholic court title.

Of course the boys come by it naturally. Their dad, Bill, Sr., was one of the real stars of the old Catholic Baseball League.

Knights of St. John League

The flying maples played their final pinning symphony of the year in the Knights of St. John League after a twenty-one week stretch crowded with thrills, chills and a marvelously consistent performance by the new champions from St. Boniface.

Boasting of probably the greatest team to represent any commandery in the league's brief history, the Bonnies wound up the season in typical fashion by smashing through to a triple victory over St. George's with a three-game total of 2881. Sprinkled in that total were two good 600 scores. One was a 634 from the hook of H. Ritz and the other was a 602 by Deil. The best St. George's could muster was Ed Bach, Jr.'s 571.

The last night's total sends the team average of the St. Boniface quintet Well above the 923 mark for the season something for teams of future years to shoot at.

St. Michael's grabbed off three games from the St Eustace boys winding up with 2815 including a single game of 1029 Mr. Gutberlet, who charmed Catholic Baseball League audience of other years, contributed a 608 count to lead his team. This included a high single game of 255. Muehleisen's 580 was tops for St Eustace

Cathedral showed some last minute prowess by taking St Bernard's into camp for a double victory. Ryan came through with 564 while Hill's 523 led the parade for St. Bernard's St. Mauritius swept the closing series with SS. Peter and Paul's with Kress, Sr., and J. Kress providing the pinning fireworks. The senior Mr Kress massaged the maples for 575 while his namesake came through with 541. Collins' 548 was high for the losers.

This year's success forecasts greater things for the league next year That the quality of bowling has improved goes without saying. What's more important is the greater amount of interest taken by the various commanderies in the ultimate fate of their representative teams. The league certainly has proved a valuable addition to the Catholic sports parade.

Catholic League

The St Stanislaus bombers let loose two heavy charges again this week to take the series from H R A A Leading off with 258, Kwiatkowski rolled up a 641 total to pilot his team to twin victories Art Scheuch pieced together 204, 185, and 215 for a 602 score to top the H. R. A A pinners.

Sammy Rebman flashed some fancy pinning performances in his second and third trips down the drives to enable St. Andrew's to take a double victory from St John's. After a 157 start, Sammy hit 257 and 226 for 640. Jimmy Hubert's 577 was high for St. John's.

St. Boniface came out on the long end of the series with St. Michael's, winning the first and third games and dropping the middle contest. Colucci hit 612 to lead the winners while Stoesser's 607 was best for the losers.

Lang, with 591, showed the way to the Blessed Sacrament alley artists and the result was a double victory over Corpus Christi. Ed Ford's 560 was the best the losers could assemble.

Knights of Columbus League

Al Dowd pulled up with a single game of 265 and a three-gam total of 609 to feature the individual efforts in the K. of C. League this week. Gaffney was right behind with 599.

Feehan Fitzpatrick, the bowling bridegroom, carved out scores of 213 and 200 while Gaffney had a 210 and 200. Other scores included Schwartz, 229; Boll, 223; Amering, 213; Datley, 201, and Schaft, 200.

The Indians, Santas, Ninas and Guards took two games apiece from the Puritans, Orients, Pintas and Klutes.

H. R. A. A. League

With L. Schlueter showing the way, Father Stauder's Boosters clicked off a double victory over Hoderlein's Grill. Schlueter had 593 including a big second game of 243 Winding up with 211. Warth led the Grillers with 517

After dropping the first game by a sizeable margin, Yaniski's Market came through with two wins over Millis Inn Yaniski, himself, was high for his team with 531 while Mueller's 520 was best for the losers

Meyers Shoes had the better of the pinning argument with Ace Drugs, taking two of three games Brand's 557 was high for the shoemen while Magin, with 559, was the ace of the Aces.

Boys Their Interests

The "lice cell" is a gentle instrument used by the Soviet to extract money from their citizens. It is a room about thirty feet square in which are packed about 150 men, women and children suspected of having gold, silver or jewels. Pressed so tightly together that their bodies touch—each gives his lice to the next. Added to this the temperature of the room is increased to tropic heat. In this room the men and women are often kept for days and even weeks until they turn over to the government whatever wealth they possess. Their legs become so swollen that they cannot stand; their bodies are one mass of insect bites. When they become unconscious they are dragged from the cell for a brief rest; then they are sent back. This is why Catholic thinkers say that communism and capitalism are brothers under the skin. Both want money and will kill and oppress to get it. And what does the Soviet do with this money thus obtained by torture? They send to the United States for machinery. The worst of it is, we take this blood money.

Forty Parochial schools in Buffalo partook in an Indoor Track Meet at the State Armory. Individual races were held for boys and girls and good prizes were given by the different Catholic societies The Bishop awarded the prizes. When shall we have something like that?

What is a religion? It is merely your idea of where we came from, what we are to do here, and where we are going after death. There are many religions of which we hardly think. Atheism is a religion. It is a devotion to self. Socialism is built upon atheism. According to their theory we came from the ape, we are here to enjoy ourselves, and when we are put in the grave we stay there. This is why both communists and socialists fight the Church.

"The Man on the Flying Trapeze" is a grand and graceful sight. At the circus, boys swallow their gum, drop their suckers, and grown-up boys allow their cigarettes to burn out. Without apparent effort the acrobat sails through the air and catches the bars, turns flips and catches another Or he changes bars with his partner in mid-air Easy? Try it some time They make it look easy. That is a part of the art, but it requires long practice and great strength, and courage. Leotard, the Frenchman who invented the "flying trapeze" once visited this country, and amazed all with the grace and ease of his matchless performances

In private Leotard could throw himself about with only one arm and do marvelous stunts but he refused to do them in public They are too violent, everyone sees the great strain on my muscles That is bad art. It must be smooth and graceful" And so we have "with the greatest of ease"

The Celtics gave three clinics instead of one The Ebers were only boys playing with men, the Minors playing with the Major Leaguers The speed of the passes, the way they shook their men loose for a shot, and the ease with which they ran and shot showed their real caliber. We should like to see the Celtics play a team worthy of their metal.

Dots and dashes: Rumor has it that Steward and Reisinger of Madison have been offered athletic scholarships at Notre Dame and Holy Cross respectively Aquinas is slowly rounding into shape If they could tackle more teams they would develop quicker Basketball drew much better this year in the Public High Schools Our guess is that the teams were better and the fans appreciated that The ease with which Madison handles the ball is noteworthy Camp Stella Maris will teach basketball this summer along with baseball This is because of the Parochial Basketball League

DRIVE FOR FUNDS FOR DON BOSCO YOUTH LEADERS GROUP UNDERWAY

A campaign for funds to assist the Don Bosco Fraternity in carrying on its work was started Friday and will continue until May 8. The drive is headed by Grand Knight, Dr. Walter B. O'Neill of the Knights of Columbus as honorary chairman and James J. Ehmann as active chairman.

The Don Bosco Fraternity, leaders stated this week, has been organized to carry on work among youth as outlined by St. John Bosco during his lifetime.

St. John Bosco, the modern Apostle of youth was born in a country hamlet near Turin, Italy, on August 16, 1815. He was a promoter of festive oratories, a founder of orphanages, of schools of arts and trades, and of agriculture, of summer colonies, grammar and high schools, foreign missions, etc., all founded with the idea of saving the souls of young people.

To perpetuate his mission he founded the Salesian Society, the Institute of the Daughters of Mary Help of Christians, and the Union of Salesian Co-operators

St. John Bosco died on Jan. 31, 1888. On July 24, 1907 he was declared Venerable and one June 2 1929, he was beatified by Pope Pius XI. His beatification, long expected, was acclaimed with lively enthusiasm, devotions in his honor spreading through the world. Last Easter, John Bosco was canonized.

With this saint as their inspiration, members of the Don Bosco Fraternity here are working zealously to gather funds to carry on their work. Starting in the next issue of the CATHOLIC COURIER all who contribute a dollar or more to the Fraternity will be listed with the amount given. Donations may be left at Columbus Civic Center Building with James J. Ehmann or he may be called at Stone 1492.

C. B. A. Syracuse Five Beats Holy Family High

Auburn Christian Brothers Academy of Syracuse, which recently refused a bid in the National Catholic Basketball tournament at Chicago, Ill., drubbed the Holy Family High School quintet, 42-15, last Friday night at the State Armory court. It was the second triumph of the season for the Brothers over the Purple and Gold tossers. The C. B. A. Reserves lost to the Holy Family junior varsity, 15 to 16.
