HOUSEHOLD HINTS

For a cold, take a pinch of baking soda and a teaspoonful of salt mixed with lemon juice and water.

In molasses cookery one must be very careful to have the right oven temperature, as molasses burns easily. A moderate oven for most recipes will be safest.

Remember the longer the shortening is creamed, with or without sugar, the finer grained will be the cake.

If the feet become dry with a burning sensation after walking, a wise plan is to add a small quantity of vinegar to a basin of warm water and soak the feet in this for a quarter of an hour or so.

COMPARE ARPEAKO HAM WITH ANY OTHER AND.....

...you'll always buy ARPEAKO HAM

WHEN YOU buy a ham for Easter, compare these features of Arpeako Hams with any other ham.

Arpeako Hams never have a long, wasteful shank. They have a short shank, with less bone and more meat.

Arpeako Hams are never salty and harsh tasting. They always have the mild, sweet flavor that is the definite result of our "exclusive cure" and good old fashioned smoking over hardwood.

Arpeako Hams are never coarse and stringy. The meat is always tender and smooth grained, lean, and with all excess fat trimmed away.

Arpeako Hams are branded and tagged with our trade-mark, your guarantee of the choicest quality Hams obtainable at any price.

A Story Corner For Children

By 'Cousin Ken'

WHAT a quaint old tale is that of Hans the Woodcutter! Perhaps you do not know it? Well then, Hans was a lazy, careless youth who worked when he had to at chopping trees down for wood.

So down he got, and walking beside him, began to talk and joke. "Alas, my son," said the old man wrenly, "I am too tired to talk for my burden is over heavy."

MOTHER'S INTERESTS

Let any of my readers might think I have been too unympathetic in our discussion of mother's activities outside the home, it might be well to state that if some of my criticisms appear too harsh, it is because of the extent of my sympathy for mother and my interest in the home.

fortunately, that very devotion, that disregard for self, in too many instances, has been the cause of selfish, unthinking or unympathetic sons and daughters.

There are, of course, sons and daughters who do everything they can to assure their mother's comfort; but can they assure her happiness? That is another problem and one that they cannot always solve. You see, the one thing that gave mother happiness was caring for the needs of her children. It is tragic but too true that her children no longer need her personal care. If there are grandchildren, she can expend a certain amount of devotion upon them, but it is not quite the same.
