Church In India Deserves Pravers Of All—Bishop

0ffice-11 1-2 Genevee St.

THE MOST REV. BERNARD SULLIVAN, S. J. Patna, India. In India, where 250,000,000 Hindus; Min and 90,000,000 Mohammedans main-tain their conventional religious systems with all their traditional strength, not all the lavish love of Christ for souls, not all the strenuous laboratof St. Thomas, Apostle, and St. Francis Xavier not all the generous efforts of a long time of realous missionaries supported by faithful home missionaries down through the ages have been in wain For, the 3,500,000 Catholics of India, though only one per cent of the entire population, are well organized under eleven Archbishops, 30 Bishops, and five Vicars Apostolic. They have all the Catholic organizations common to the Church the world over, such as the Society for the Propagation of Faith, the Apostleship of Prayer, and Cathloic Action. They have large col-leges each attended by 1,000 to 2,000 students. They have their seminaries, monasteries, and con-

The Church in India with its well-organized Catholic life is a grand miracle in an otherwise verwhelmingly pagan land. It teaches by living example the way to eternal salvation, and is a light to those who sit in darkness and superstition. It is balm to the pierced Heart of Christ on the Cross and a for to His Sacred Heart in His triumphant Resur-

The Church of India deserves the best prayers and sacrifices and the constant charity of the entire Catholic world in its constant enunder the sweet and maving rule of Christ the Eternal King.
