enchanted the C. Y. M. A. members for nine innings with the result that they were turned back hitless with sixteen going out via the strikeout route and only two balls going to the outfield.

The O. L. P. H. team looked well nigh perfect behind Ferrari. The infield of Palmer at first, Indebitten at second and Gerow at third functioned perfectly.

Out at Arpenko Field "off" Dutchtown's favorite sons were back. Cider Young, Chuck Young, John Blain, Ed McKeelnie, Joe Sennauer and Joe Mason with Shatzel and Al Johnson in for good measure.

But it remained for an untired youngster, Cervini to smash out a pair of doubles in critical spots to feature the 11-6 win over Immaculate.

When St. Lucy's rolled up a 12-1 lead over Holy Redeemer's in the first five innings of the match, no doubt of the outcome although the Hudson Avenue lads showed some life at bat in the later innings.
