Somebody once remarked that a ball game isn't over until the last man is out. The boys from Holy Family now realize that the sage who made that crack knew what he spoke. For Sunday the Dutchowners had all but beaten C. Y. M. A. with a two-run lead, two outs and two strikes on the third batter in the last of the tenth when a sliding, head-first, exploded under Joe Mason.

The Baseball League opened this Wednesday with St. Andrew's boys crossing bats with St. Ambrose, and with St. Boniface and Blessed Sacrament. The boys from the Western Division, due to the bad spring weather, the league is a little late in starting.

Elmira, N. Y.—The fourteenth annual mission sponsored at the Elmira State Reformatory by the Rev. Francis Lane, Catholic chaplain at the prison, was brought to a close with Mass and the Papal Blessing conveyed by the Rev. Stephen Sweeney, C. P., of the Pasquonist Monastery in Union City, N. J. Father Sweeney officiated throughout.

While all this was going on in the heart of Dutchtown, O. J. H. and Cathedral were locked up in one of those twirling stream battles—a 1-0 game.

There are sixteen teams in the league this year. Instead of having three divisions we have formed them into two, Eastern and Western with eight teams in each division—Dark-horses to watch this year: Holy Apostles who have their fine team from last year almost intact. St. Monica, who are being groomed carefully by their coaches, report a good team.

Unlike the pennant races of former seasons, this year's battle appears to be a free-for-all with no holds barred.

Two parishes, St. Andrew's and St. Boniface, have made attempts (and successful ones) to teach religion to their boys and girls attending public high schools.
