LET'S begin at the beginning . . . her invitations. It is absolutely correct and proper to have them handwritten. In fact, it lends an air that is otherwise missed. Unless you are inviting everybody and his uncle you'll find that handwritten invitations ARE within your limits. Remember the wedding day is the day of days, so do not stint. To receive a handwritten invitation is something new and different . . . let's be that!! Miss Frances Huxley, is an expert at handwriting invitations, announcements, etc. Why not drop in and see her McCurdy's, Main Floor, or at her home evenings 296 Otis Street, phone Main 5500.

OF COURSE, you can buy a ready-made bridal gown, but will it be one that flatters and bespeaks your loveliness? It is much nicer to have one made to your own likeness, one that proclaims you as an individual, sweet and lovely. And your maid of honor and bridesmaid, too, will be able to carry out that note of individuality if you have your gown and theirs made to order. Mrs E A Dawley dressmaker of Paris modes 64 Harvard Street, will be only too glad to discuss this with you. Monroe 6948

REMEMBER, my sweet, on the honeymoon you won't be able to spend hours fussing with your hair . . . not if you expect to keep friend husband in a loving mood. So forget about having just a finger wave . . . you had better be safe and have a permanent. Then your worries will be over. Suzanne is telling you to put your head in Ferguson's hands and the results will be very satisfying. You will be sure of having shining waves beneath that bridal veil and later beneath the moon. Ferguson's Beauty Salon, 340 Thurston Road, Genesee 1630 Make your date NOW!

IT'S an age-old custom for the bride to entertain her bridesmaids Suzanne knows who will be a big help to the bride . . Edith Ellis, 38 East Avenue. She has just heaps of table decorations, bridal favors prizes and in fact everything that your little heart could desire to make such an affair a success! Plan your party then, drop in at Edith Ellis and get your accessories. Main 287.

TO LOVE and to cherish . . . what a sweet, slender picture you were "that" day. But, today the picture has changed . . . now we see a matured, flabby figure. If you want to recapture that shape of yesteryear, see Emily Bushay, corsetiere, 323 Burke Bldg., 5 St. Paul St. She can do worlds for you in a reasonable way Stone 3662.
