

ARE YOU ONE OF THE 5,000?

By Ernest W. Vogel Jr. President, Rochester Business Institute

Among the better classes of Rochester today there are at least five thousand "young" men and women who have a common need...

This group is not only "educated" but its members are pleasant to meet socially, and of excellent character...

Lack of purpose. No lack of willingness to work. No lack of knowledge. To this one may answer "yes" and "no"...

The situation is deplorable since the training necessary to acquire such knowledge is both available and offers definite rewards...

With the approach of better business conditions these facts are important. I am glad to say that indications point to a general realization...

Are you one of those who might profit by training in the "big game of business"?

MOONLIGHT MANOR

A Romantic Story With Scenes Laid in the Genesee Valley By AGNES HORSCH HOEMASTER

(Continued from Last Week) "I told you you'd be the Lion of the evening," declared Maryana who had introduced him to about thirty or so sweet young things.

"Don't cry, Alanna. It's all right. It's all right," Owen said softly and stepped out in the direction of the bandits.

"There were little silver wings in her hair. She was running. She was running. She was running. She was running."

"Thank you, Pete. Andy's voice was sweeter than honey. Andy's voice was sweeter than honey. Andy's voice was sweeter than honey."

"Oh well, in that case I'd take the Manor along to the city, Oweny. Sure, I'd follow you to hell or heaven—and back again."
