Paper Lauds Progress Of Junior Holy Name Society in Athletics

Milwaukee (NCWC) - The remarkable progress made by the central athletic office of the Milwaukee Archdiocese Union of the Junior Holy Name Society is the subject of an article in the Milwaukee Journal by R. C. Lynch, sports editor. The article pays tribute to the work of the Rev. Edward J. Wagner, athletic director, and Father St. Murphy, Jr., his co-worker.

Along the Sports Horizon

Diamond Dust: The winner of the Catholic baseball championship of Rochester are going to be challenged for the sectional title. "Babe" Ruth runs against the Pirates for just what the doctor ordered. They stirred up interest in him and now he'll carry on a bit longer instead of quailing at the end of the present road trip.

Delegates From Here Attend K. C. State Meet in Lake Placid

Delegates from the various councils in this Diocese will be in Lake Placid, Friday and Saturday of this week, May 31 and June 1 for the 40th annual meeting of the New York State Council, Knight of Columbus. A large delegation is attending the convention from Rochester, headed by Grand Knight Dr. Walter B. O'Neill and Past Grand Knight John A. Doyle.

Boys Their Interests

With but a very few exceptions the Parochial Baseball League games have been good. The scores were close and the margin of victory was very slight. At least five games were won by one run; two of that number were won in the one case by two separate pitchers.

Parochial School League Standings

Table with columns: Teams, Won, Lost, Pct. Eastern League: St. Andrews (2-0), St. Theresa (2-0), St. Stanislaus (2-0), Holy Rosary (1-2), Holy Redeemer (1-2), St. Ambrose (0-1), St. Charles (0-2). Western League: Corpus Christi (2-0), St. Monica (1-0), St. John (1-0), St. Boniface (2-1), Blessed Sacrament (0-3), Holy Apostles (0-1), St. Peter and Paul (0-2), St. Marys (0-1).

and especially the old graduates to remember Father Hudson in their prayers. He was partially responsible for the founding of the Camp and worked hard there for many years as counselor.

The choir and the bands of the various Catholic secondary schools did themselves proud in their concert at the Eastman last week. We especially wish to congratulate the Nazareth choir for singing something besides Church music. As one of the audience expressed it, "It was so much like church, that you were waiting for the collection."

Has the radio killed the desire of the children to play some musical instrument? We do not think so. We are convinced of the opposite. Watch the street cars on a Saturday morning and see the number of boys and girls carrying instruments. Look at the sign of the high school bands and choirs. Just as it seems to be having a hard time of it, Great art makes counterfeiters look shabby.

Registration for Camp Stella Maris is breaking all records. Many old names are down and by the looks of things old rivalries will be renewed on the diamond and diving tower. With a few new faces, the old counselors will be back in force. And ATTENTION - what have we with us the same cook, Mrs. Schaeffer Um-yum! She says she has invented a dessert so good that you will throw your false teeth at the very sight. (That saves money because the boys can't eat so much.) We ask the campers, SPOTLIGHT PERFORMERS: In the game with Holy Apostles, Knittell, pitcher for St. John's cracked out a homer in the last inning to win his own ball game. Lawrence of Holy Apostles added brilliantly talking about five difficult chances without an error. St. Theresa nosed out St. Andrew's boys, 3-2. Musianka for the winners pitched a fine game. For the losers, Matty, pitcher for St. John's, pitched well. Lorenzo, of St. Theresa, got five hits from opposing pitchers in downing St. Peter's. Holy Redeemer ended in grandstand victims. In the last inning Stocklin tripled Weber home from first base. Talaska then singled to bring in the winning run.

One of the best battles of the week was the Blessed Sacrament vs St. Monica tilt. It was a pitcher's battle all the way, with O'Coin of Blessed Sacrament and Gallagher of St. Monica's hurling terrific ball. Part of the victory was due to the goodness of the Gallagher got excited (and) refused to battry. (The pitcher) crabbled dejection. This stunted their arm and kept them working smoothly even when they were three runs behind.

The Eastern Division is fairly evenly matched. St. Theresa and St. Stanislaus seem to be the cream of the other teams close behind. In the Western Division three teams stand out, St. John's, Corpus Christi and St. Monica's. St. John's has been winning merely by the scores, but both St. John's and St. Monica's seem to run more smoothly and to have the extra strength when needed. Corpus Christi seems to have better bats than the other two, but perhaps Gallagher will be able to offset that advantage by good pitching. When any of these three teams meet, we advise everyone, to see the game.

St. Lucy's hitting guns rocked good old Dutchtown last night and left for nearly two hours when the smoke lifted. Holy Family was on the minus end of 14-0.

Billy Nally was the senior pitcher on the Dutchtown team, hitting out four hits in four trips to the plate. McConnell pitched fairly good but for the winners, but Joe Mason was heard at all stages.

The game played loosely, established St. Lucy's as a hitting array. Boys who can hit like St. Lucy's aggregation must be reckoned with in deciding the championship.

C. Y. M. A. tried to haul the Cathedral banner down from its place, but failed when the Cathedral lads pounded out a 9-3 verdict. Grand Trunk lifted out home runs to Tom Hattings from the box. Then Manager Clem Bay-tried his mound artillery, but it no avail. It was Cathedral's day and once more they're back in the thick of the pennant battle.

With Luclano in the box, O. L. P. H. finally came through with a victory at Edgerton Playground, winning over Holy Redeemer's by 8-5. The game marked O. L. P. H.'s league win since Ferraris' hitless victory in the opening encounter.

While three defeats may prove a serious handicap toward copping the first half flag, the O. L. P. H. team still remains a dangerous threat in every and all aspirants to the title.

They've called out the police in Our Lady of Sorrows League. No, not to protect the umpire, but to help the large crowds under control. Yes, the sight of the comprising the circuit are staging such a ding-dong battle that hundreds of fans watch their diamond antics each Tuesday and Wednesday evening.

This church league was organized some years ago and has been going strong ever since. Interest in the immediate parish circles of O. L. O. is almost unbelievable. The members of a various teams are putting up a fine brand of ball, boasting as they do of some of the city's best softball players in their personnel.

Steering this organization over its course is Commissioner Joe Meyers. Joe is a past Catholic League manager and that accounts for a great deal of the tact and skill with which he is handling the conduct of the organization. Joe has promised faithfully that this pillar will not want for news of the league's activities each week. We'll be waiting patiently.

Club Standings: Holy Rosary (4-1), Cathedral (3-1), St. Lucy's (3-2), Imm. Con (2-3), O. L. P. H. (2-3), C. Y. M. A. (2-3), Holy Family (2-3), Holy Redeemer (1-3), Schedule for Sunday, June 2, 1935: O. L. P. H. vs. Imm. Con at West High. Umpire, Maguire; scorer, Pierce. St. Lucy's vs. Cathedral at Edgerton Park. Umpire, Pflitter; scorer, Anthony. C. Y. M. A. vs. Holy Rosary at Aquinas Field. Umpire, Schwartz; scorer, Lang. Holy Family vs. Holy Redeemer at Edgerton Playground. Umpire, Lipinski; scorer, Young.

Knights Outing Set At Eisenauer's Farm

Knights of St. John's outing, scheduled for Sunday, June 2, at the Eisenauer Farm on Lyell Road, will take place in the afternoon. The committee in charge of arrangements is as follows: John Rogers, Alfred Schreiner, Louis Roy, Frank Popham, Clarence Vogel and George Schrader.

TO HONOR BETHOVEN - A memorial program will be placed this summer on the organ. Ludwig von Beethoven, famous Catholic composer, was born in this city.

Section of Harold T. "Blotch" Johnson as secretary of the Rochester Bowling Association, eliminated one of the bitterest fights of organization ever has seen. The job is such a plum because it pays the $1000. Blotch now holds forth as secretary of the Rochester and Catholic Bowling Associations in addition to acting as judge in the city for the alley-owners' last night.

The Bowling boys already are starting a drive to bring the A. C. here possibly in 1938. They're just beginning to realize what an awful stuff they're making by letting last year's classic slip through their fingers and go to Syracuse to make oodles of $$$$. A firm fixture in the Middle West, and this section of the city has finally reached its metropolis. A daily New York tabloid is sponsoring a mammoth league and offering attractive prizes to the winners. They're playing the top-notch game, leaving the Catholic League as the only organization in this section of the country holding to the nine month theory. This year's national tournament in Chicago is bound to draw some of the breaking crowds to watch the finals for the national title.

Immaculate Conception boys played the role of Brutus to Larry Healy's Julius Caesar at West High Field this week. And that's why Holy Rosary is still topping the Catholic League chase with four victories in five starts.

Healy, the ancient one, pitched excellent ball for the Immaculate lads, but his support - or rather lack of it - proved too much of a handicap to overcome and when the dust lifted the champs were on the long end of a 7-3 score. It's hard to believe, but the official scorer charged the Immaculate team with eight errors, half of them coming in the eighth frame when Holy Rosary pushed across the winning runs.

Sammy Reiman went the route for Holy Rosary and did some fancy flinging. Bender, who was leading the league's hitters at the last compilation of averages.
