

SCHOOLS OF DIOCESE PREPARE FOR GRADUATION EXERCISES

To the Young Lady Who GRADUATES:

Murray's Beauty Salon advertisement with an illustration of a woman's face.

THIS is the Sensible Way to Dress your Boy for Graduation!

Advertisement for blue cheviot suits featuring an illustration of a young boy in a suit.

Blue Cheviot SUITS

Two pairs blue trousers, or with one pair of blues and one pair white flannels

14.95

Your money does double duty—and that these days? First, you get a suit for graduation—fine vest and trousers. Then you get two pairs of trousers to prolong the life of your suit. If you prefer, you may have a pair of blue flannel slacks which with a pair of white flannels is the perfect outfit for graduation. And every coat is made in the latest style. Sizes 12 to 22

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WILL GRADUATE 2,869 PUPILS IN ROCHESTER DIOCESE

(Continued from Page One) building by the patrol in maintaining order and discipline.

St. Boniface School will be the scene of a two-day celebration, Sunday evening, June 23 when the various grades of the school will present an interesting program in honor of the 67 boys and girls to be graduated and will mark the feast day of the Holy Trinity.

St. Boniface School graduates: Betty Allen, Helen Brooks, Ruth Casroll, May Conrad, Catherine Coon, Mary Dupre, Jane Erdie, Edna Erbe, Arline Fallon, Elizabeth Hall, Dorothy Hornfield, Jean Hughes, Margaret Kaiser, Jean LeDuc, Elizabeth LaFleur, Whitford Landry, Rita Lattinville, Marjorie Mayser, Catherine Oberlies, Jeanette Tallant.

St. Michael's School graduates: In St. Michael's Church, Sunday evening, June 23, 64 pupils of St. Michael's School will be the first class to receive diplomas from their new pastor, the Rev. Arthur A. Florack.

St. Francis Xavier School graduates: One of the largest classes ever to be graduated from St. Francis Xavier's School will receive diplomas Friday, June 21. Numbering 46 pupils, the class has 33 boys and 13 girls.

Holy Cross School graduates: Graduation exercises of Holy Cross School will be held on the evenings of June 20 and 21 in Holy Cross Hall, Latta Road.

St. Michael's School graduates: In St. Michael's Church, Sunday evening, June 23, 64 pupils of St. Michael's School will be the first class to receive diplomas from their new pastor, the Rev. Arthur A. Florack.

St. Alphonsus School graduates: The following 36 pupils will be graduated from St. Alphonsus School on Sunday, June 23: Mary Ellen Clifford, Bishop Thomas Chittick, Paul DiFabion, William Farrar, Edward...

ment, for having read fifty approved books.

The following will receive prizes for having been on the Honor Roll all year: Agnes Mehan, Dorothy Doyle, Rita Ryan, Jean Kleinjans, Mary Herron, William Rice, Clifford Bishop, George Redmond, Joseph Samwelder, George Heaster, Robert Howe, William Laird, Ernest Picarro. The pupils receiving prizes for perfect attendance are: a class of 16 girls and 10 boys.

Girls' uniform will be of white or gaudie and a flower girl carrying a basket of roses will attend each young lady; a page bearing a lily will accompany each young man.

St. Joseph's School

Two graduation exercises will take place at St. Joseph's School, Rochester. St. Joseph's Parochial School will graduate 29 pupils on June 23. The class will receive Holy Communion in a body in the morning and at 3 o'clock the graduation exercises will take place in the church with the Rev. Frederick Nystvogel, C. S. R., Rector of St. Joseph's Church, officiating. The thirty-first annual graduation exercises of St. Joseph's Com-

The Past has been Pleasant

... the Future?

Will it, too, bring happiness, success? Four answers are provided by Rochester Business Institute's program of Balanced Training:

- (1) PERSONAL GUIDANCE, whereby each student, through a study of his special interests and aptitudes, is aided, both in selecting a suitable life work and in choosing the right subjects in preparation for his career.
(2) TECHNICAL TRAINING: Thorough training in technical skills is still necessary, and at R. B. I. subject as shorthand and typing find an important place.
(3) SOCIAL SKILLS: R. B. I. offers special subjects for the development of personality, and a complete schedule of social events during the year also contribute to this objective.
(4) PLACEMENT TECHNIQUE, featuring not only preparation for getting a job, but for promoting one's self in that job.

An over-active Placement Department still further assures the success of individual students. As proof of its efficiency and the demand for R. B. I. trained business assistants the following record is offered:

R. B. I. GRADUATES WHO SECURED POSITIONS SINCE JANUARY FIRST OF THIS YEAR

Table listing graduates by month: JANUARY, 1935; FEBRUARY, 1935; MARCH, 1935; APRIL, 1935; MAY, 1935. Each entry includes the graduate's name and their secured position.

RBI Register Early for FALL TERM Beginning SEPT. 3

ROCHESTER BUSINESS INSTITUTE

ERNEST W. VEIGEL, PRESIDENT

BALANCED BUSINESS TRAINING 172 CLINTON AVE SO.