With the Catholic League teams on the home stretch in the first half pennant chase, the two teams with the brightest championship prospects are Holy Rosary and Cathedral...

Each team should have dropped only one encounter since the start of the season... Holy Rosary has won five, while Cathedral a half game behind...

Two of Holy Rosary's ailing stars returned to form in Sunday's smashing victory over C. Y. M. A. in the best display of baseball the champs have offered this year...

First Baseman Jerry Fritz stepped to the fore among the league sluggers by pulling out his third homer of the season... All in all it was a very happy day for the Holy Rosary boys...

The Cathedral boys kept right on the heels of the champs by disposing of some very dangerous opposition from St. Lucy's... This game was more of a battle than the 9-5 score would indicate...

A young hopeful from Holy Redeemer's did what every Catholic League player has been dreaming of for years... He scored nine runs in the ninth inning to win the game at West High Field...

Going into the final frame the O. L. P. H. had looked hopeless... Then they uncorked one of those rallies you read about, aided of course by some defensive lapse on the part of Immaculate...

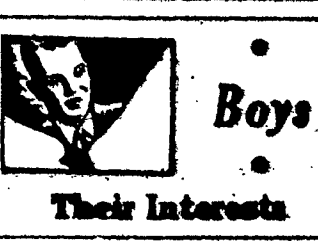

The victory made it two in a row for O. L. P. H. in the regular Sunday's meeting with their arch rivals from Holy Rosary... Immaculate Conception vs. Holy Redeemer's...

OFFERING KNOWN QUALITY AT FAIR PRICES

NRA may come... NRA may go... but the need for service of reliable quality goes on forever

For instance: A canary escaped from his cage, flew to the top of a high tree, was happy. When he saw the cat climbing the tree he flew back through the window and hurried into his cage.

Some business men, already, would like to climb back into the NRA cage, notably those that manufacture alcoholic spirits. They say that without government control, similar to NRA, traffic in distilled spirits will be entirely in the hands of bootleggers, and soon rise to 80 per cent. in the hands of the bootleggers.

It is 60 per cent a bootleg industry now, so be careful what you buy, know the BRAND and know the MERCHANT.

These licensed dealers are your protection against adulterated and bootleg products. They sell only those brands which merit public confidence.
