Journey's End!

The orphan boy from St. Mary's Industrial School climbed into a big brown sedan and sped down the coast... His powerful left arm broke away a ball game and smashed many a pitcher's heart.

To the great American public, Ruth's passing is just another inevitable tragedy of sport... But to the unbiased observer, it seems rather probable that we must drag down our sport idols and let them grovel in the dust before their names are dimly washed off the sporting pages.

On that Notre Dame campus, George Gipp kept step with the immortal to the dying day... He was still the nucleus of the team of Notre Dame, the purveyor of gridiron magic and the greatest coach of all time.

Cuff Is Elected Grand Knight of Rochester K. C.

James E. Cuff, noted attorney and prominent Catholic layman, was elected Grand Knight of Rochester Council, Knights of Columbus, Thursday to succeed Dr. Walter H. O'Neill, retiring after three terms as head of Rochester Council.

OFFERING KNOWN QUALITY AT FAIR PRICES

NRA may come NRA may go... but the need for service of reliable quality goes on forever

For instance: A canary escaped from his cage, flew to the top of a high tree, was happy. When he saw the cat climbing the tree he flew back through the window and hurried into his cage.

Some business men, already, would like to climb back into the NRA cage, notably those that manufacture alcoholic spirits. They say that without government control, similar to NRA, traffic in distilled spirits will be entirely in the hands of bootleggers, and soon rise to 80 per cent. in the hands of the bootleggers.

It is 60 per cent a bootleg industry now, so be careful what you buy, know the BRAND and know the MERCHANT.

These licensed dealers are your protection against adulterated and bootleg products. They sell only those brands which merit public confidence.
