Rochester Diocesan Council of the National Council of Catholic Women

Mrs. Emily M. O'Donnell and her Study Club leaders had the privilege of meeting with Miss Marian Marica, Executive Secretary of the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine...

The Rochester diocese is now concerned with the work of religious vocations for children in towns that have no parochial schools. A letter in connection with this work has been sent to all our affiliated organizations.

We conclude our quotation from the Pittsburgh Council bulletin: "A woman who really wishes to make her influence for good felt in the souls of those with whom she lives must know how to make herself the center of their lives..."

"The love of Christ drives us on." We are happy to extend our sincere congratulations to the newly elected Officers of the Rochester Parish Sodality Union.

Our best wishes go also to the 1934-35 officers of Immaculate Conception Sodality. They are: President, Miss Kay Maloney...

At their June meeting on Monday evening, SS. Peter and Paul Sodality held their annual elections. An initiation of the candidates for reception was scheduled for that date...
