STATE PARK IS MECCA FOR ALL NATURE LOVERS
The Watkins Glen State Park is considered one of the natural wonders of America and for scenic beauty it has few rivals. It is the oldest of any of the Parks in the Finger Lakes Region. Long before the coming of the white man, the healing properties of its mineral springs were known to the Indians. The visitor will appreciate the ingenuity that has been shown in making trails that follow the stream, frequently at its very edge, slipping below some waterfall, with the misty spray forming a rainbow, running over some high flung bridge or along a narrow, but guarded path with the stream glittering silverlike far below. As the waters wind their way through the Glen, there are no less than nineteen distinct waterfalls, with numerous cascades and grottoes, the waters eventually making their way into Seneca Lake, one bridge alone is 175 feet above the waters, while flower-studded cliffs rise for 200 feet or more in some places all but shutting out the blue of the sky above. A superintendent and a score of caretakers are available to direct and aid visitors. Among the facilities provided, kiddie bathing pool, camp sites, comfort stations, refreshment information bureaus, tables and similar advantages.

Glen Becomes State Park
In 1924, the various Glen and Historic Commissions of the Finger Lakes Region were merged under the same name of the Finger Lakes State Parks (Commission which now has jurisdiction over this Glen and several other scenic places). The State has made many improvements since establishing the Park, and has also purchased 407 additional acres of land. This, added to the original purchase of 103 acres, makes a total area of 510 acres.

Sacred Heart Statue Blessed at Lake Home In Memory of Leo Doyle
In the presence of clergy, relatives and friends a beautiful statue of the Sacred Heart of Jesus was blessed Sunday afternoon on the spacious lawn of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Doyle's summer residence at Onondaga Lake by the Rev. Thomas F. Connors, pastor of Blessed Sacrament Church. The statue has been erected in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle's son, Leo W. Doyle, killed in an auto accident, March 4 this year. Assisting Father Connors in the dedication services were the Reverend Fathers: Gerald C. Lambert, Benedict Bismann, George Vogt, Joseph Vogt, Bernard Cleary, and Walter A. Fischer. Following the services, Eugene J. Dwyer, K.S.G., delivered an address, as did Father Connors. The Knights of Columbus Choral Society under the direction of Paul A. Predmore, sang two hymns.

Girls Return to Alaska
Juneau, Alaska (JMS)—After twenty years and thirty-four more in Alaska, Father Philbert Turnell, S. J., was forced by ill health to return to the States. But the call of the Far North so beckoned him that Superiors have finally allowed the eighty-four year old priest to return. Father Turnell's father, after the death of his wife, herself a sister of Pope Gregory XVI, became a priest. It was during his father's funeral sermon that Philbert then a law student at the University of Padua, first heard the call to the priesthood.
