Along the Sports Horizon

By BILL LANG
From the congratulatory swirl engulfing the almost perpetual champions of the Catholic League...

There is no doubt that Holy Rosary has a strong team. The record proves that the detectable flaw in the defense or offense and the pitching staff of Reisman, Wislizenau and Barnes...

Boys Their Interests

The Parochial Baseball League remains very much the same last week due to the rainy weather...

There are at least six teams in both divisions of the League who have a chance to win the pennant. Never before has there been such a wide gap in the boys' baseball...

Priest Turns to Real Estate

Joyrup, India (JMS)—An American missionary, Father James R. Gibbons, S. J., is at present engaged in purchasing building sites for protective centers in the flourishing Santal field of Patna...

Infield Fly: With none out, or with one out, and with a man on first base, first and second, or first and third bases, a player batting a fly is automatically out...

The idea of the infield fly is to prevent a trick double play. The high fly on purpose and double the man at second and at first...

Camp Stella Maria: We are indebted to Mr. Carthy of the Rochester Fire Department for the installation of a siren which will only be used in case of fire or emergency on the beach...

It is perfectly plain that Catholic High Schools in most of our cities are neither large enough nor have they money enough to give all our Catholic boys and girls a high education...
