TWO PRIESTS FROM THIS DIOCESE ATTEND CLERGY YOUTH LEADERS NATIONAL MEETING AT NOTRE DAME

Rev. Frederick Straub, pastor of St. Joseph's Church, Auburn, and Rev. Walter Fisher, assistant, were present from this diocese at the National Conference of Clergy Youth Leaders held this week at Notre Dame University, under the auspices of the Most Rev. John F. O'Hara, C.S.C., Bishop of Fort Wayne.

Rev. Bernard J. Sheil, auxiliary bishop of Chicago, co-operated with Bishop Noll in sponsoring the conference. According to the N.C.W.C. bulletin reports on the conference sent out to dioceses throughout the country, conferences in charge of Monsignor Ready, C. S. P., of the Catholic Youth Organization, and Father Cox, S. J., of the National Catholic Alumni Federation, were held in connection with the conference for priests and laymen in charge of the Boy Scout movement of the United States.

The clerical conference included discussions of obstacles in the way of youth organizations and plans for balanced youth programs. Monsignor Wolfe, author of the pamphlet "Catholic Action in Action," was to preside at one of the sessions, as was the Rev. Dr. George Johnson, secretary general of the National Catholic Educational Association.
