SIXTY YEARS OF PROGRESS - SHORTENING THE SPAN OF SPACE
FIRE CAN STILL DESTROY
But the Telephone Brings Help Nearer
FIRE TODAY BURNS JUST AS RAPIDLY AND DESTRUCTIVELY as it did sixty years ago. It is still just as insidious in its attack. But today's householder, when smoke dogs the air and crackling flames claw at treasured possessions, picks up a telephone and calls for help. In a few seconds, trained fire fighters, with screaming sirens, are speeding to his assistance.
