Along the Sports Horizon

By BILL LANG

Nestled in the foothills of the Catskills not far from the Sleepy Hollow...

With its rolling hills and winding roads, it's still the peer of them all in judging ball and strikes.

With the end of the Catholic League's pennant race only two weeks away...

Those in charge will tell you that "we never had such nonsense when we went to school" and they don't see why there should be any change in the setup.

With the opening of another school year just around the corner, now is the time for proprietors to consider such a program.

Don't ever let New Yorkers tell you again that they can't take their baseball or they can leave it.

CARRIERS

Our carriers outside of Rochester and vicinity are reminded that the "Golden Era" of our special offer is rapidly drawing to a close.

Most of our carriers are very faithful in noting the reason on the back of route cards when they send them in to the office.

Retience and courage usually go hand-in-hand, and not infrequently are we conscious of a latent strength and power emanating from people whom we often speak of as a man or woman of few words.

Boys Their Interests

Ding! Dong! "Wazzit? Fire? Hum! Call me later." The coming of school days or "daze" the teacher would have it is one of those unpleasant things in life that we cannot avoid.

But why study? If it is so difficult, why not try something else? Be an athlete; a baseball player. No work to baseball? Ask a good player how many years he worked at his batting stance, at his fielding ability and at many finer points of the game that few in the crowd realize.

Then be a bum. Take it easy. Let other people feed and "bribe" you; owe you a living? There is more hardship and suffering in the life of a bum than any one else.

And there is joy in work. Joy in the physical strength you cultivate, and joy in seeing what you have done. Like a farmer looking over his harvest, there is a spiritual joy that work has kept you busy and thus helped to keep you good.

pin head; or in turning out a one-thousandth part of a automobile. There are two answers to modern machinery: one is to forget through pleasure; the other to lead a more simple life and be content without the luxuries of life.

CAMP STELLA MARIS By all signs the Social on August 28 at the Camp will again be a success. After the chicken suppers, games and amusements are scheduled.

Of the five Hungarian Scouters who visited Rochester last week, three were priests. One was a teacher of Moral Theology in the Seminary in Vienna. They were bus Civic Center as a center for Catholic youth.

And there is joy in work. Joy in the physical strength you cultivate, and joy in seeing what you have done. Like a farmer looking over his harvest, there is a spiritual joy that work has kept you busy and thus helped to keep you good.

It is true that modern civilization is the joy out of work. No person can take joy in polishing a shoe.

ORDAINED IN CANADA Quebec (NCWC) Father Senesac, C.S.V. of the Archdiocese of Baltimore, has been ordained to the priesthood at St. Jean by the Most Rev. Anastase Forget, Bishop of St. Jean-de-Quebec.

He that seeketh anything else but simply God, and the salvation of his soul, will find nothing but trouble and sorrow.
