

Catholic Prep School To Have Officers' Corps

Aurora, Ill. (NCWC) — Announcement was made today by Major General Frank R. McCoy, commander of the 6th Corps Area, Chicago, that a Junior Reserve Officers' Training Corps has been approved for Merrimon, a Catholic Prep School for Boys conducted here by the Benedictine Fathers of St. Meinrad's Abbey, Ind. Full military training will be established at the school this fall.

Priest In Elmira Talk Cites Principles On Private Property

Elmira. The Church upholds the sanctity of private property, yet at the same time stands firm on the principle that property has a social character and should be diffused and used for the common good, declared the Rev. Michael B. Groden, pastor of St. Mary's Church, Horseheads, in his address here, August 21, before the Rochester Diocesan Council N. C. W. Board of Directors' meeting.

Mt. Carmel School Boy Describes Travels In Italy

When tribulations, infirmities and contradictions come we must not run away in a fright, but vanquish them like men. The Church is at once the most aristocratic and the most democratic of all institutions. — Katharine T. Hinkson.

Help the Missions! Support your diocesan weekly. Promote the Courier.

Young Ventura, fifteen-year-old Mt. Carmel schoolboy returned to Rochester last Saturday brimming with reminiscences of a delightful and memorable journey through Italy.

From hearing my Father and Mother speak of their homeland, Italy, I have always had a great desire to see it for myself.

This summer has found my desire fulfilled, for I was one of the boys to sail for Italy in June.

MASSES in the Rochester Diocese

BLESSED SACRAMENT, CORPUS CHRISTI, HOLY ROSARY, IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

PERPETUAL NOVENA To OUR LADY OF THE MIRACULOUS MEDAL

SECRETARIAL and STENOGRAPHIC COURSES for High School, Normal and College Graduates

The encyclical of Pope Leo on the "Condition of Labor" published in 1901 and the encyclical of Pope Pius XI on "Reconstructing the Social Order" go fully into the causes of worldwide distress and the possible means of extricating the world from the present depression, Father Groden said.

Other speakers at the luncheon included the Rev. John M. Duffy, Superintendent, Catholic Schools, Diocese of Rochester, of Rochester; the Rev. John M. Ball, Diocesan Director, National Rural Life Bureau, Lima; and the Rt. Rev. Msgr. John J. Lee, V. F. Dean of Elmira.

The present world condition was caused by a flagrant departure from the moral law in business and government, with the consequent piling up of confusion, contention, and chaos, Father Groden declared.

Diomio Ventura, fifteen-year-old Mt. Carmel schoolboy returned to Rochester last Saturday brimming with reminiscences of a delightful and memorable journey through Italy.

Our five day stay in Genoa was a very memorable one. Our next stop was at Milan, the New York City of Italy, so-called because of its many industries. We visited the many churches, where the cathedral steps lead to the top. In this city we saw the remains of St. Charles Borromeo, the tomb of St. Ambrose and of two martyrs in the square.

After leaving this place we arrived at our destination, Genoa, where we were met by a band and greeted by the officials of this beautiful city.

Our five day stay in Genoa was a very memorable one. Our next stop was at Milan, the New York City of Italy, so-called because of its many industries. We visited the many churches, where the cathedral steps lead to the top.

After spending three days we boarded a train for Rome, and we were delighted with the excellent travelers to see the Holy Father.

We were welcomed to Rome by His Excellency Pierre Parivi. Two days after we were seated at the table with His Holiness, Pope Pius XI at Castel Gandolfo.

The Pope spoke kindly to the boys and urged them to be faithful to God and to the Church, and to compromise principle. Each boy had the privilege of kissing his ring and of having articles blessed by him.

Now is the time for parents to be particularly interested in their children; see that they attend to their religious duties, say their prayers, go to Mass and receive the Sacraments.

After leaving this place we arrived at our destination, Genoa, where we were met by a band and greeted by the officials of this beautiful city.

Our five day stay in Genoa was a very memorable one. Our next stop was at Milan, the New York City of Italy, so-called because of its many industries. We visited the many churches, where the cathedral steps lead to the top.

After spending three days we boarded a train for Rome, and we were delighted with the excellent travelers to see the Holy Father.

We were welcomed to Rome by His Excellency Pierre Parivi. Two days after we were seated at the table with His Holiness, Pope Pius XI at Castel Gandolfo.

After leaving this place we arrived at our destination, Genoa, where we were met by a band and greeted by the officials of this beautiful city.

Our five day stay in Genoa was a very memorable one. Our next stop was at Milan, the New York City of Italy, so-called because of its many industries. We visited the many churches, where the cathedral steps lead to the top.

After spending three days we boarded a train for Rome, and we were delighted with the excellent travelers to see the Holy Father.

We were welcomed to Rome by His Excellency Pierre Parivi. Two days after we were seated at the table with His Holiness, Pope Pius XI at Castel Gandolfo.

NIAGARA UNIVERSITY School of Business Rochester Division FALL SESSION Monday, September 23, 1935 REGISTERED DEGREE COURSES IN BUSINESS

McFARLIN'S "BACKS" to School. There's no use denying it... second to a good fabric and tailoring combination, style is uppermost in a boy's mind.

CLYDE By HAROLD NICHOLS. Clyde Committees are completing plans for what probably will be the largest picnic in years here.

and girls, I've the nicest place to stay this term! COLUMBUS CIVIC CENTRE. FOR SOME TIME NOW IT HAS BEEN RECOGNIZED THAT THE COLUMBUS CIVIC CENTRE IS THE IDEAL RESIDENCE FOR OUT-OF-TOWN STUDENTS AND SCHOOL TEACHERS.