McCoy, commander of the 6th Corps Area, Chicago, that a Junior Reserve Officers' Training Corps has been approved for Merrimon, a Catholic Prep School for Boys conducted here by the Benedictine Fathers of St. Meinrad's Abbey, Ind. Full military training will be established at the school this fall.

Priest In Elmira Talk Cites Principles On Private Property

Elmira. The Church upholds the sanctity of private property, yet at the same time stands firm on the principle that property has a social character and should be diffused and used for the common good, declared the Rev. Michael B. Groden, pastor of St. Mary's Church, Horseheads, in his address here, August 21, before the Rochester Diocesan Council N. C. W. Board of Directors' meeting.

Mt. Carmel School Boy Describes Travels In Italy

When tribulations, infirmities and contradictions come we must not run away in a fright, but vanquish them like men. The Church is at once the most aristocratic and the most democratic of all institutions. — Katharine T. Hinkson.

The present world condition was caused by a flagrant departure from the moral law in business and government, with the consequent piling up of confusion, contention, and chaos. Father Groden declared.

The Catholic Church declares that the accumulation of private property is a sin. Man accumulates the goods of the earth by the sweat of his brow. He puts his personality, himself into them. They are his, they are part of him.

Diomio Ventura, fifteen-year-old Mt. Carmel schoolboy returned to Rochester last Saturday brimming with reminiscences of a delightful and memorable journey through Italy.

MY TRAVELS IN ITALY

From hearing my Father and Mother speak of their homeland, Italy, I have always had a great desire to see it for myself.

Our five day stay in Genoa was a very memorable one. Our next stop was at Milan, the New York City of Italy, so-called because of its many industries. We visited its famous cathedral, where the cathedral steps lead to the top.

After spending three days we boarded a train for Rome, and we were delighted with the exciting travelers to see the Holy Father.

Now is the time for parents to be particularly interested in their children; see that they attend to their religious duties, say their prayers, go to Mass and receive the Sacraments.
