NEW MISSION HOUSE OPENS IN DIOCESE

The owner of a large, new Mission House, located on a downtown street of Buffalo last May is being sought by the Rev. Daniel B. O'Rourke, pastor of Mother of Sorrows Church, 411 Read Boulevard, here, with the assistance of the CATHOLIC COURIER. Father O'Rourke explains that the Mission House, which does not come from the name of the owner, came into his possession last week, because a sheet of paper inside the house had contained his name and address. The house had forwarded it to Father O'Rourke in Buffalo. The Rev. O'Rourke, according to the Buffalo description, is black, and in a black case.

POPE'S VOICE AWES THROUG AT CLEVELAND

Every real saint is human. His biography may make him a prig or severe, to himself and to a crowd.—Cardinal O'Connell. Others.—St. John Chrysostom. (Continued from Page One) all in union with his depressing "the unspeakable material and moral have of war" and in beseeching God for peace throughout the world. He likewise bespeaks "a less tolerable burden of life for a world worn to exhaustion by the ravages of the great depression."

CAMPAIGN SET FOR PRIESTS' MISSION AID

To promote the Society for the Propagation of the Faith the Pontifical Work of St. Peter, the Apostle, for Native Clergy, the Pontifical Association of the Holy Childhood, and other works that benefit the missions. Priests, particularly members of the Missionary Union of the Clergy, are the backbone of all missionary effort, and on them depends the progress of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

Registration Begins At R. B. I. for Course In Secretarial Science

Registration is underway at the Rochester Business Institute for the next class in Secretarial Science. The course is a two-year program leading to a diploma and normal school graduation. It is designed to prepare the college or normal school trained individual for the better or less lucrative positions in business, government, or other fields. The course includes training in English and its kindred subjects of composition and others. The time given to these in the regular course is equal to that given to the student in the regular course of a normal school. The course is designed to give the student a practical knowledge of the various branches of secretarial science.
