Two New Music Works by Kreckel Are Announced

A new Mass, "Missa Brevis et Melodica," and volume III of "Musica Divina," original organ music, compositions of Philip G. Kreckel, organist at St. Boniface Church, will be published this month by J. Fischer and Brothers, New York City. The third volume of the "Musica Divina" series is due from the press on October 15. In the current number of "Fischer Edition News," the publishing company praises the work of Mr. Kreckel highly, "because organists all over the world," according to the "News," "are by this time familiar with Philip G. Kreckel's two volumes of original organ music, 'Musica Divina.' All the compositions in these two books are based on themes taken from Gregorian melodies and Catholic hymns, and because of the outstanding trend which the composer has given them, they have come to be known as the most valuable contribution to Catholic organ music yet made in this country."
