Along the Sports Horizon
By BILL LANG

The great American pastime of "guess who'll win" is upon us.
This is the National League pennant race. The season, the East-Louis battle and the World Series followed in turn. Now we're face to face with the football season and the job's getting harder than solving the cross-word puzzle in the Sunday supplement.

While Chicago does, and perhaps three other dioceses are ahead of others in Boywork, our diocese of Rochester is not far behind the leaders.
Father Lambert in summing up the various expressions made at the Convention.

The Aquinas football team managed to muster enough strategy to come through in the last few moments of play. A let-down was rather natural after the Hungary game. Besides that shift of the LeRoy team seemed to bother quite a bit. It was a sort of Warner shift-the-kind that tricks Notre Dame about every other year.

How would you like to pinch-hit in your first appearance in a World Series with the fans almost delirious and the tying run on base? Yet Ken O'Dea, the Lima rookie, came through in grand style on this occasion. He had a home run to be a real Frank Merriwell.

A survey of the opinions of 1,000 students from nine typical Eastern colleges, showed a considerable swing toward the Left. On the question "Is democracy in sham," 49 percent answered "Yes," 28 percent said "No," and the rest were in favor of Communism with a small minority who could not make up their minds. On "Is wealth a tool of wealth," 77 percent voted "Yes," only 16 percent said "No" and 8 percent noncommittal.

The world series, with its selection of heroes and goals, has become a national obsession.
The radio and the press roared out mighty tributes to Lon Warneke, Goose Goslin, Mickey Cochrane, Jimmy Bridges, Chick Klein and the rest that makes up the scuffle was led by the outstanding player on both teams—Charley Gehringer, the Tiger's second sacker.

In the first clean sweeps of the season, St. Michael's, St. Stanislaus and Holy Redeemer's managed to victory in the week's Catholic League games.
St. Boniface, St. John's and Corpus Christi fell in the order named.
In the other match, Mount Carmel turned back the Blessed Sacrament boys in two of the three engagements.

Boys Their Interests

At the Catholic Charities Convention just held in Peoria, Rochester Catholic Scouting progress came for much praise. It was declared to have the best report in the whole country. The method, too, of approach through the deanseries, the separate and yet united committees working in different parts of the diocese was the model adopted for the rest of the country. The Secretary said he was going to make the Rochester report the Model for the others.

The Avons, baseball team, composed of players of the Immaculate Conception and St. Monica, played a football game for each Saturday with a reward of $100. The person making the most games correctly and the greatest possible scores.

The School and Leisure
By REV. VINCENT MOONEY, C. S. C.
Director, Catholic Youth Bureau, N. C. C. M.

In the light of these statements there is ample justification for the development of recreational and physical educational activities in the Catholic Schools, moreover it is only common sense to say that a balanced program of physical education is an effective means of training students for worthwhile use of leisure.
