Crying In The Dark

By Ellen Leary

I saw Him standing at the crossroads waiting for the endless line of traffic to be halted...

His coat was shabby and his shoes worn and he hadn't any gloves on...

I saw Him and suddenly His eyes were directed at me...

And I was the traffic going swiftly by... And I was the traffic going swiftly by...

Dear Helena, Alone we come into the world and along we go out from the world...

Occasionally persons cannot take active part for reasons known best to themselves...

Prayer and money help to keep the Catholic soldiers in the front line trenches of life where they spread Catholic truths and defend the faith...
