Along the Sports Horizon

By BILL LANG
Fighting football in Auburn came back last Saturday this week in the early part of the morning session over Brighton, the critics will hail the Maroon and White as the successful grid men of the season.

The Aquinas boys showed great form last Saturday. Nothing seemed difficult. Passes were perfect and the back Tracy Strait. (But they had to bring it back.) We hope there will be no had feeling over this prank.

K. C. COUNCILS IN DIOCESE HONOR COLUMBUS AT VARIED EXERCISES

Columbus Day observances by Knights of Columbus Councils were held in various parts of the diocese last week. The celebration of Rochester Council was in the form of a dinner for knights and their wives October 10 in Columbus Civic Center Building, at which the Rev. Joseph Cirincione was the principal speaker.

Catholic Courier CARRIERS
THE OFFICIAL DIOCESAN REVIEW AND ANNUAL CALENDAR will appear in a supplement to the regular issue in a few weeks.

Among our "ace" carriers: Frank Schumaker, Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish, Rochester, personally and dependable; John Duffy of St. Monica's Parish, Rochester, performs all his duties thoroughly.

Schuch's 223 was tops for the week. Picking together games of 16 1/2 and 24, for 52, Beard led Stauka's Boosters to a double triumph over Ace Drugs; Mueller's 275 was high for the Aces, while main body's part from Pete's Grill, Lanning's 475 was high for the winners while Marks with 503 topped the losers.
