Along the Sports Horizon

By BILL LANG
Fighting football in Auburn came back last Saturday this week in the early part of the morning session over Brighton, the critics will hail the Maroon and White as the successful grid men of the season.

The Aquinas boys showed great form last Saturday. Nothing seemed difficult. Passes were perfect and the block Tracy Strait. (But they had to bring it back.) We hope there will be no had feeling over this prank.

Catholic Courier CARRIERS
THE OFFICIAL DIOCESAN REVIEW AND ANNUAL CALENDAR will appear in a supplement to the regular issue in a few weeks. All regular subscribers will receive this interesting and valuable feature.

Among our "ace" carriers: Frank Schumaker, Our Lady of Perpetual Help Parish, Rochester, personally and dependably; John Duffy of St. Monica's Parish, Rochester, performs all his duties thoroughly.

Schuch's 223 was tops for the week. Picking together games of 16 1/2 and 24, for 562, Beard led Stauka's Boosters to a double triumph over Ace Drugs. Mueller's 275 was high for the Aces. Williams took a part from Pete's Grill. Lanning's 475 was high for the winners while Marks with 503 topped the losers.
