Crying In The Dark

By Ellen Leary... TRUE HARVEST When you plant in little garden Don't you love to count flowers? And measure all the apples By the apple blossoms showers?

Are the gardener parents watchful of their children or do they let weeds at them? Do they let strangers roam in that garden of children and trample on them?

Dear Mrs. T. Emotions run away with children. Discipline is the sternness to be used if the child is to achieve any secure future.

Parents may have loving motives for indulging all the whims of their children or they may have come to their brain which prompts them to allow the child to express himself as the moderns term it.

Friday, November 1 is the feast of All Saints, a feast which existed before the seventh century.

Where do youth get their ideas? Their enthusiasm for thrills and excitement? The motion picture is a very evident source.

Women of Holy Redeemer parish will hold a card party, Friday evening, Nov. 8 at 8:30 in the parish hall.

Were the prophetic words of the Holy Ghost before the birth of Christ? As we draw ourselves as we learn in personal holiness, as we teach our children personal holiness by making all their negotiations, their joys and their sorrows a part of the race from earth to Heaven, we will run.

Today the Legion of Decency which should be supported by all Catholics classifies pictures. The condemned ones are not suitable for child or adult.

Rochester Diocesan Council of the National Council of Catholic Women

When this week's Courier goes to press we shall be in the midst of our Convention proceedings, which will be reported later.

The Reception and Tea given at the Catholic Women's Club on Tuesday, the honor of Miss Lynch and the other women guests of the Convention, was a most enjoyable affair.

Now that our Diocesan Convention is over, we can turn our attention to our Fifteenth National Convention to be held in Fort Wayne, Indiana, November 17 through 21.

First of all, let us remind you that each local affiliated organization, whose dues are paid, is entitled to send one voting delegate to the Convention.

Organized in 1920 as an integral part of the National Catholic Welfare Conference, the organization of bishops in this country, the National Council of Catholic Women includes in its membership seven-

Attendants at the four-day sessions will have an opportunity to hear the activities in behalf of youth discussed by Catholic leaders throughout the country.

Many special features are being planned for the enjoyment of the delegates and visitors. The Slovak Parish School Band of Whiting, Indiana, which has become quite famous through its concert work will play at the reception on Saturday evening.
