Rochester Diocesan Council of the National Council of Catholic Women

Office: 536 Columbus Civic Centre, 50 Chestnut Street

OUR NATIONAL PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE "As we write this the list of our messages as President, to you, the affiliated groups of the National Council of Catholic Women, there crowd upon us many thoughts...

"First, a word of praise to the Catholic women of the country for the zeal and intelligence with which you are preparing for the work of the Lay Apostolate. You seem, in a sense, to be making a new acceptance of an age-old privilege—the priesthood of the laity.

"Secondly, a word of gratitude for the privilege you have given us of working with you in this special garden of the Master. You have placed your leadership in our hands, untried and unworthy as they were, but you supported those hands with the strength of your own.

"And lastly, a word of affection to the hearts of all those who are devotedly loyal and cooperative which has made the 'yoke sweet and the burden light' to each member of headquarters staff, and to diocesan officers and membership throughout the country...

Blessed Sacrament Sodality held their monthly meeting Tuesday Nov. 12. The Birthday Party was celebrated in a new way, each Sodalist joining one of four groups, separated according to seasons...

The Publicity Committee of SS. Peter and Paul's Sodality sponsored a candy sale at their monthly meeting Nov. 11. It was discovered that everyone has a sweet tooth...

Did you ever say the Little Office of the Blessed Virgin Mary? Yes, of course I know you have at Sodality meetings, but I mean in private, a sort of conversation between yourself and Our Lady.
