Final Services Held For Mrs. Helen Sigler

Funeral services for Mrs. Helen Sigler were conducted Tuesday morning, Nov. 6, from her late home 8 Terry Street and at Saint Patrick's Cathedral. Solemn High mass was celebrated by Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles F. Shay, assisted by Rev. Lawrence E. Ryan as Deacon and John S. Randall as Subdeacon. In the Sanctuary were: Rev. Gerald Brennan, Rev. Gerald Lambert, Rev. John Maxwell and Rev. Ralph Neagle.

Bearers were: Frank Wixted, Roger Wixted, Joseph Reider, Howard Galvin, Thomas O'Leary, and George Siegrist. Delegations from the Sisters of Saint Joseph and the Sisters of the Holy Trinity attended. Burial was in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery, where the prayers were read by Rev. Alphonse Crimmens assisted by Monsignor Shay, Father Randall and Father Ryan.

Mrs. Sigler is survived by her husband, John E. Sigler; two daughters, Veronica and Marcella, and two sisters, Mary and Margaret Galvin. Mrs. Sigler was a lifelong resident of the Cathedral Parish.

ARCHBISHOP MOONEY IS NAMED CHAIRMAN OF N. C. W. C. BOARD

effect last July by the Administrative Committee.

His Eminence William Cardinal O'Connell, Archbishop of Boston, presided over the first session yesterday morning. His Eminence George Cardinal Mundelein, Archbishop of Chicago, presided over the sessions yesterday afternoon and today. In addition to the Cardinals, there were present eleven Archbishops and 64 Bishops.

A statement was issued calling the attention of Catholic groups to "the distinction between Catholic activity and Catholic Action" and reminding all groups that "there is no such thing as Catholic Action until there is an Episcopal commission."

The members of the newly-elected Administrative Board are:

The Most Rev. John T. McNicholas, O. P., Archbishop of Cincinnati; the Most Rev. Edward Mooney, Archbishop-Bishop of Rochester; the Most Rev. John J. Mitty, Archbishop of San Francisco; the Most Rev. Samuel A. Stritch, Archbishop of Milwaukee; the Most Rev. Joseph F. Rummel, Archbishop of New Orleans.

The Most Rev. Hugh C. Boyle, Bishop of Pittsburgh; the Most Rev. John F. Noll, Bishop of Fort Wayne; the Most Rev. Edwin V. O'Hara, Bishop of Great Falls, Mont.; the Most Rev. Francis C. Kelley, Bishop of Oklahoma City and Tulsa, and the Most Rev. John B. Peterson, Bishop of Manchester.

Two Members Retire

The new constitution of the N.C.W.C. requires that the two members of the Board who had served the longest were not eligible for election. So the Most Rev. John Gregory Murray, Archbishop of St. Paul, and the Most Rev. Thomas F. Lillis, Bishop of Kansas City, were not re-elected.

Archbishop Murray had served as a member of the N.C.W.C. Administrative Board since September, 1927. Following his election he was chosen to be Episcopal Chairman of the N.C.W.C. Legal Department and, in November, 1929, was also named Treasurer of the Administrative Board. He held these two offices on the Committee until his retirement this year.

Bishop Lillis had served continuously on the Administrative Board for more than a decade. He was elected a member of the Committee in 1924. He served as Vice Chairman of the Board for a number of years, in addition to being Episcopal Chairman of the N. C. W. C. Department of Social Action. Upon the resignation of Archbishop Edward J. Hanna as Chairman of the Board last March, Bishop Lillis was named Acting Chairman. While holding this latter office, he also served as Episcopal Chairman of the N.C.W.C. Department of Catholic Action.

The text of the statement on Catholic Action follows:

"The Bishops of the National Catholic Welfare Conference in the General Meeting at Washington November 14, 1935, call attention of all Catholic groups in the United States to the distinction between Catholic activity and Catholic Action. The Bishops remind all groups according to the instruction of our Holy Father, Pope Pius XI, that there is no such thing as Catholic Action until there is an Episcopal commission. For a diocese there must be a commission from the Bishop of a diocese, for a province from the Bishops of a Province, and for the country from the Bishops of the United States. The Holy Father only can give a commission for the universal Church on Catholic Action. When His Holiness does so he communicates with the Bishops."

Nun, Descendant Of Pioneers Dies, Teacher 31 Years

Funeral services for Sister M. Veronica Murphy of the Sisters of Mercy, descendant of one of Auburn's pioneer Catholic families and a teacher for 31 years in the Rochester diocese, who died on Nov. 12 in St. Mary's Hospital, were conducted on Saturday morning, Nov. 16, from Mercy Motherhouse, Blossom Road, and from St. John's Church, Humboldt Street.

Celebrant of the funeral Mass was the Rev. J. Francis Murphy of Watervliet, Michigan, brother of the deceased Sister. The Very Rev. John A. Conway, V.F., of Auburn was deacon, and the Rev. Daniel B. O'Rourke was sub-deacon. Present in the sanctuary were the Rt. Rev. Msgr. William M. Hart, S.T.D., V.G.; Rt. Rev. Msgr. Charles F. Shay; the Rev. Joseph Maloney, the Rev. George W. Eckl, the Rev. Patrick Smith, the Rev. John M. Duffy, the Rev. William O'Ragan, C.SS.R of Rochester, the Rev. Louis W. Edelman, M.A., Ph.D. of Pittsford, the Rev. James T. Wood of Fairport, and the Rev. J. Baier of Greece.

Burial was in the Sisters of Mercy plot in Holy Sepulchre cemetery, where the committal services were read by Father Murphy, assisted by the Rev. Cornelius Silke, the Rev. George W. Eckl, and the Rev. Daniel B. O'Rourke.

Sister Veronica, who had been a member of the religious order for thirty-one years, and had taught in every school in the Rochester diocese which is under the care of the Sisters of Mercy, was a descendant of two Irish Catholic families who settled on farms in that part of Cayuga county that is known as Troop. The band of pioneers to which these two families belonged, with their fellow Catholics in Auburn, founded the congregation which was the first to bring a priest from Albany to minister to the Catholics of Central and Western New York.

'Mercy Killing,' Communism Flayed By State K. of C. Head

When leading physicians in the United States declare it ethical to put the hopelessly ill to death and when leaders of governments, such as in Russia, Germany and Mexico consider a man the chattel of the state, they are violating the Christian concept of the dignity of man, declared State Deputy Michael F. Walsh of Brooklyn in an address here Sunday.

Head of the Knights of Columbus in New York State, State Deputy Walsh came to Rochester to speak at the annual Communion Breakfast of Rochester Council in Columbus Civic Center Building. He conferred with the Rochester officers Saturday evening and presided at a regional meeting in Buffalo Sunday afternoon.

In his address to the Rochester Knights, the speaker told of the emphasis now being placed upon the Doctrine of the Mystical Body of Christ and said from that doctrine comes the conception of the dignity of men.

He scored the Communistic state in which a man becomes merely a cog in a machine and, when no longer able to produce and becomes a burden on the state may be put peacefully to death.

It is contrary to sound morality, he said, to put anyone to death. It is illogical to say that a man is hopelessly ill when the doctors cannot agree when such a man reaches that stage.

Two outstanding programs were given by State Deputy Walsh for the Knights to follow: First, a fixed code of morality and second, preservation of the American form of government.

He contrasted the communistic and Christian concept of man and declared: "God has endowed man with certain inalienable rights that no state has the right to take from him."

The State Deputy commended the Catholic Action program of Rochester Council as directed by Philip H. Donnelly and urged its development.

Presentation of the speaker was made by District Deputy John A. Doyle, who was toastmaster Emmett J. O'Neill was chairman of the breakfast.

A brief address was given by Representative James P. B Duffy, who extolled the principles of the Knights of Columbus which he said members of both major parties could accept in the working out of government problems Past Grand Knight Charles R. Barnes spoke briefly.

Education Week Is Observed At Nazareth Hall

Educational Week at Nazareth Hall was enthusiastically observed by all grades in the school. On Friday afternoon, a pleasing program was rendered by the pupils.

The sixth, seventh and eighth grades held a public speaking contest. In the eighth grade, the following boys delivered orations on Abraham Lincoln: Andrew Calabrese, Paul Duffy, Vincent Lawless, John Roberts and William Wixson. Of those participants, John Roberts was selected as the prize winner. The following boys of the seventh grade, George Carroll, Billy Halbleib, Richard Keenan, Robert May, Walter Riley and Boniface Wohlrab gave Patrick Henry's Speech "War Inevitable." Of this group, Boniface Wohlrab was awarded first prize and Billy Halbleib received second prize. The Gettysburg Address was given by the sixth grade Brownlow Devitt, Jack Driscoll, Billy Knapp, Frederick Little, Don Nelson, Joseph O'Connor, Jack O'Grady, George Staud and Robert Wilsey represented their class. George Staud was judged worthy of first prize and Joseph O'Connor received the second award. The Rev. Daniel O'Rourke, Miss Louise Dunn and Sister M Aquinas, principal of Nazareth Hall were the judges. The fifth grade had a geography program which was followed by a short French conversation between pupils. The primary department gave a demonstration of games, folk dances and music. All the school rooms had an exhibit of the children's work, which the parents viewed with interest, to learn what their children could accomplish with proper guidance.
