

MAGAZINE CHECKED ON EUCHARIST CONGRESS ARTICLE, PRINTS REGRET

New York, Nov. 27.—In connection with a letter of protest from the Rev. William Parsons, S. J., editor of America, weekly review published by the Rev. Fathers in this city, Tizzani recently reprinted an article which appeared in the National Catholic Encyclopedia, published in Cleveland.

The magazine in an editorial comment on Father Parsons' letter declares: "Never were Time's intentions more sincere than in its effort to report accurately and honestly the views of the preparators for Cleveland's Eucharistic Congress. Therefore, naturally, when we learned that the report had displeased many Catholic readers, if only a few, we were sorry."
