External Loans of Irish Republic Paid in Full

Payment of the External Loans of the Irish Republic have been made here with holders of the bonds receiving final payment on them plus 25 per cent interest on each dollar invested.
The following letter was received from Barron de Valera, President of the Irish Republic:
Department of the President, Dublin, Ireland.
"On behalf of the Irish people I take this opportunity to thank the American citizens who subscribed to the External Loans of the Irish Republic. They granted and helped us in our time of need. It is a privilege to return the money that they lent us. The debt of gratitude we owe them, however, is one that we can never fully repay.
RAMON DE VALERA, President of the Executive Council."

Little Chinese Boy Sacrifices His Duck To Aid the Missions

New York—(NC)—A few copper coins offered by a little Chinese boy are among the contributions that have gone toward swelling the total of response to the recent Mission Sunday appeal, according to the National Office of the Propagation of the Faith, here.
The coins thus contributed represent suching and great sacrifice, according to the story received at the National Office from Wukl, China. Some time after the missioner there had finished Mass and given his talk for the mission, a little boy walked in, leading a squeaking duck. This he presented as his contribution to the Pope for the missions. Upon the missioner expressing regret that it would be impossible for him to dispatch the duck "in person" to the Holy Father, the little lad left, more than a bit disappointed. But in a short while he was back without his duck. However, he took several copper coins from his hand and gave them to the missioner to send to the Holy Father. He had sold his duck to the highest bidder, and persisted in his desire to help the missions.
