Two Parishes Plan Christmas Poultry Sales Next Week

Two churches in charge of the Rev. John J. Eiler, pastor, will conduct separate Christmas poultry sales next week to which friends of either parish are cordially invited by the pastor. The sales will be held in the St. John's school basement hall, Ridge Road, on Tuesday evening, Dec. 11. Admission will be free.

Varied Student Activities Mapped At Rochester Division of Niagara U.

The Business Forum of the Rochester division of Niagara University, with an enlarged membership, held its organization meeting and will operate on the policy adopted last year. The Forum, composed of undergraduates, entertains guest speakers and conducts field trips into various commercial establishments to gain first-hand acquaintance with modern business methods.

Martyr Saints Retreat At Old St. Mary Church

A five-day retreat in honor of the North American Martyrs, only Saints of the northern hemisphere, is now being conducted by the Rev. Harold Boyd, O.P., noted preacher of the Dominican Order in Old St. Mary's Church, South Street. Closing services will be held Sunday evening, Dec. 15, at 8 o'clock, announced by the Rev. Dr. George F. Kettell, pastor of Old St. Mary's Church.

Mercy High Notes

Dedicating themselves to the Blessed Virgin, 98 girls were recaptured into the Sodality of Our Lady of Mercy High School on December 9. This is the largest reception which has ever taken place at Mercy High. The Rev. Charles Mahoney, assistant superintendent of schools, addressed the new sodalists with an inspiring talk about Our Lady, under the title of the Immaculate Conception. He reviewed the life of the Blessed Virgin, holding her up as the model for all sodalists.

Miss McCarthy to Give Book Review at College

A book review will be given by Miss McCarthy Friday evening, Dec. 13, at 8 p. m. in the Nazareth College Social Room, Augustine Street, to be sponsored by the Nazareth College Guild. Miss McCarthy will review "Black Shirt Black Skin," by Douglas Carter. Mrs. Joseph P. Doyle of Wellington Avenue is chairman of the occasion.

ANNUNCIATION MASSES

A sacred party for the Church of the Annunciation will be held Friday evening, Dec. 13, at the Church of the Holy Spirit, 100 North Goodman. It is announced by the Rev. George Weinmann, pastor. The anniversary of the feast will be celebrated with a special service. Prizes will be awarded and refreshments served.

Students at the Rochester Division of Niagara University will celebrate the opening of the holiday season by dancing to the music of Benny Kruger, who has been engaged for the annual Freshman Sophomore hop to be held in the Columbus Civic Center ballroom on Dec. 20.

Every man has three characters - that which he exhibits, that which he has, and that which he thinks he has.
