Magi Not Santa Claus Get Attention of Islanders at Christmas Time

By J. M. TOO-NARJO. Fourteen hundred-odd miles southeast of Manhattan—a day by air, far by water—struggles the largest overseas community of American citizens living upon the only speck of land under the Stars and Stripes on which Columbus set foot. Two-thirds the size of Connecticut—with the Lamb of God and a Gospel text on its seal—Puerto Rico is Uncle Sam's sunny land of the Magi. Uncle Sam's colony with three Kings the three Kings of the Epiphany. Santa Claus is not for them.

Story of Christianity Presented in Volume

New York (NC)—Prompted, the author states, by evidence that "never before, perhaps, in the history of the world, has mankind so desperately needed Christianity as it does today," the English Press has published "I Believe," a volume by the Rev. Wilfred G. Hurley, C.S.P.

word as starting from the simple truth that God exists and then bringing forth the other truths which, it says, inevitably follow. Dedicated to the Most Rev. John J. Mitty, Archbishop of San Francisco, the book presents the teachings of the Church graphically and in simplified language. It is profusely illustrated.

What one is at heart, and what one gets to be in active life, may not always square.

CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION AROUND CRIB IN HOME IS SUGGESTED FOR FAMILY

By THE REV. WILLIAM H. PORTER, S.J. BRIGHTON UNIVERSITY

The purpose of the following articles is to offer a suggestion for a family Christmas celebration around the Christmas crib in the home. Its purpose is also to encourage the building of Christmas cribs in the home and the holding of devotions around the crib on the great Feast of the Nativity of Our Lord.

Arrange the crib between the Christmas tree and the window. The light of the tree and the light of the window should be turned on at the beginning of the celebration. A glowing fireplace light up the room; no other lights, except burning candles which members of the family may hold. All these lights should be turned on at the beginning of the celebration. All these lights should be turned on at the beginning of the celebration.

Weekly Calendar of Feast Days

Monday, December 11—St. Martin was appointed abbot of the monastery at Micy in the time of Clovis. During a terrible famine he fed nearly the whole city of Orleans with wheat from his monastic stores, miraculously multiplying it. After governing his monastery for ten years, he died as he had lived, in the odor of sanctity, in the year 465.

Wednesday, December 13—St. Elizabeth, Bishop, came from Rome with St. Basil of Caesarea, the chief rival of the third century. In spite of great opposition he succeeded in making converts to the faith, although constantly in danger of death at the hands of the Emperor. He died in peace and was honored with miracles.

Thursday, December 14—St. Nemesius, Martyr, was an Egyptian who was apprehended at Alexandria during the persecution of Diocletian. He was charged with having committed theft and having easily cleared himself of this accusation, he was then charged with being a Christian. After being scourged and otherwise tortured he was condemned to be burnt with robbers and other malefactors.

Friday, December 15—St. Philogonius, Bishop, was placed in the See of Antioch upon the death of Theophilus in 345. When Julius, bishop of Alexandria, St. Alexander condemned him and sent the sentence in a synodal letter to St. Philogonius who strenuously defended the Catholic Faith before the Council of Nicaea. In the storm which was raised against the Church first by Maximian II and afterward by Licinius St. Philogonius won the title of Confessor.

Saturday, December 16—St. Thomas, apostle, was one of the fishermen on the lake of Galilee whom Our Lord called to be one of His apostles. He was slow to believe and after the Resurrection would not credit the report that Christ had risen. But at the actual sight of the pierced hands and side and the gentle rebuke of the Saviour, unbelief was gone forever as his faith triumphed in the joyous utterance, "My Lord, and my God."

Swiss Students Urge Study of Encyclical. Freiburg (NC)—At its recent congress, held at Solothurn, the Society of Swiss Students adopted a resolution asking the University of Freiburg to institute a chair devoted exclusively to the study of the Encyclical "Humani Generis Summa."
