WHAT IS CHRISTMAS JOY!

Children love Christmast And the rest of us do too. If we have not permitted it to get too complex and mundarse in the course of the years. It is a feast of joy Jovely, homely is the chief reason why Christman should be kept simple and "homey"

The gifts of Christmas are but the sympols of the Meanwaly Gill Wise Men and us. When we give gifts—it is a necessary part of the Christmas spirit to do so-we are acting with Our Pather in Housen in His gift-giving. And when we receive gifts—and which one of me is so hardened as not to love to get Christmas presents-we are act ing with Mary in her reception of the Heavenly Cift.

These two ideas are the key of all Christmas glying. Without them there is danger of harshness and disappointment, of selfishness and ingrittude spoiling the Christmas spirit. Children love Christmas - capacially for its gifts. Center their gifts around the Baby Jesus in such a way that they will associate them with Him. A picture of the Infant, or better. a Christmas Crib, is a necessity for this. Tell tham why Christmas, and let them know to Catrolic who makes such state-ments?—that unless he is living in san and refuses to do otherwise he would not remain away from confession or having committed some grave wrong. Le refuses to he kiven and knows he would not the kiven aboution upit he did.

The fact that he has a good mother or rather that she has such a son, in no way reflects upon her or her faith. Did you never hear of St Monica, who prayed so long and so fervently for her son, who, at that time, was such a sinner, but that time, was such a sinner, but that re a sain? How can you say she is not irrying to save his soul helping to save it sould far an or for helping to save it for careful though the properties and canonement became a Etshop of the guicharo and the soul helping to save it for careful through contribe repertance and atonement became a finance without his help gnd the grace of dancing feet tell the story without his help gnd the grace of dancing feet tell the story the proved beyond description.
