The Town of Nazareth

LOURDES BISHOP LAUDS HUMILITY OF FOCH AT MARKER DEDICATION

Paris (NC) The Most Rev. Pierre Gerlier, Bishop of Tarbes...

State Textile Board Bishop Head Asks Industry Reforms

Manchester, N. H. (NC) The Governor's textile investigation commission...

Also interesting in the approach of Christmas is this unusual picture of the town of Nazareth in its present day. Here was the home of the Holy Family, and here Our Blessed Saviour grew to manhood.

A Christmas Letter From Seville

SISTER MONICA, Ph. D., Ursuline of Brown County, Ohio

Dear Boys and Girls: In Spain the chimney does not enter into the Christmas scheme...

Oh no, they do things in a very different way. On Christmas Day they think only of the Christ Child...

Every Christmas a supper should be given free to one hundred poor men, and so it is. An association...

When the last torch has faded round the corner everybody hurries home to bed. And you betide if you don't...

There was midnight Mass in the larger churches, and then the people went to a supper with decorations of holly and flowers...

NO ROOM
ponder long, O Joseph, as I see
The inn-gate barely barred by thoughtless hand.
