By BILL LANG The machinery functions so smoothly and efficiently that the outside world only hears about it during membership drive time.

Yes, mother, sister, auntie and even grandmothers fit into the scheme of things in the Columbus Youth Association. The general Women's Club and the Business Girls' Club, sponsor the league's women's basketball team.

The main appeal of the CYA, however, lies with the boys and girls. Hundreds of our schools boys are put through their paces in numerous activities under the watchful eyes of members of the Tom Bosco Society.

Now what about the man behind the guns in this complex enterprise? Bill Quinn is well equipped for his job. He was graduated from West Rutland High School in Vermont in 1924 and from Savage College for Health Education in New York five years later.

His assistants at the Civic Center include James Edmund, boys' director, Mrs. Marie Kincaid, women's director, and Miss Margaret Sullivan, who is in charge of the girls.

Apparently, "practice" sessions realize it but the fact remains that Mort Leary is doing a great job at the helm of the rejuvenated Aquinas basketball team.

Boys Their Interests

The Parochial Basketball League got off to a nice start last week. The scores were a little uneven but that is always the case in the first few games.

Camp Stella Maris Pow-Wow was held on Jan. 25, at Mendon Park Ponds. The counselors under the leadership of "Nan" Vogt and Ray Wahl are planning a fine time for the boys.

One of the aims of education is to create in us a sense of wonder. It is a seven inch wing spread, it is colored purple and old gold and has a window etched with black and pink in each wing.

The officials in Ureghy have organized the Astor people a Social Commercial Training Company. It is a serving of jobs both on the job and in the classroom.

Paroled by Herb Schuch's spectacular performance in a game which he won for the R. A. team.

The holiday season did the H. R. A. League pinners a world of good judging by the high scores turned in during the past week.
