IN DEFENSE OF THE IRISH

Dear Mrs. Madigan: In reference to that charming letter which you received and which appeared in the column recently, may I as an Irish Catholic girl beg a little space in your column to try, in my own poor way, to answer and reply.

MRS. HERBURN TALK IGNORES CHALLENGES

Mrs. Herbourn's talk on birth control was a challenge to the Catholic faith. She argued that birth control was a natural part of life and that it was necessary for the well-being of the world.

You Didn't Listen, Mary

By Eileen Leary
Mary, you didn't listen to what I said. You were too busy thinking about your own interests and not about the needs of the Church and the world.

Church Altar Society To Show Work at Tea

The Altar Society of St. Andrew's Church are sponsoring a tea to show the work of the society. The tea will be held on Friday, Jan. 25, from 2 to 4 o'clock.

Birth Control is Natural

Birth control is a natural part of life. It is not a sin and it is necessary for the well-being of the world. We should not be afraid to use it.

Birth Control is Not Natural

Birth control is not a natural part of life. It is a sin and it is harmful to the soul. We should not use it.
