CATHOLIC WILLS SOLVE MISSION PROBLEMS

The instinct is strong to keep what you have. Yet when death summons we must go to the grave, "clutching in our dead hands only that which we have given away." If you feel you cannot share your earthly possessions now with God, perhaps you will be mindful of Him and His mission when drawing up your last will. You can be sure that what you leave to carry on mission work will mean a blessing on your soul, and cause your name to be held in benediction long after your death.
