Crying In The Dark

By EILEEN LEARY

Political rivalry seeks to flout religion by malicious attacks. Yet never a little red lamp goes out. But it lights in eternal wax.

It was like a knife thrust into my back, the chaplain of Catholic students at a large state university. He had called for a mass meeting of Catholics for a previous Sunday evening at the demonstration against the political platform in Mexico.

SODALTALK

Recording the Activities of Rochester Parish Sodality

Only God can read the hearts of men. The words of the Lord are the words of life.

IN ALL her glory, she stands before the altar. The words of the Lord are the words of life.

WHAT WILL you have for dinner? A trimmed coat of untrimmed cloth.

IT IS Winter on the outside, but oh, what Spring on the inside of the MADISON DRESS SHOPPE.
