ORGAN DEDICATED

Watkins Glen, More than 100 residents of Watkins Glen and vicinity were present at the ceremonies marking the dedication of the newly installed organ in St Marys Church last week. Praise Him with timbrel and choirs praise Him with strings and organs, was the text of the dedication sermon, preached by the Rev Paul Bulger, CSSR, of Buffalo. Miss Santina Leone, a member of the Carmelite Choir in Rochester and a member of the Rochester City Music Association, sang, accompanied by Professor Kreckel.

MEDAL STORIES ATTACK

Elmira Through the efforts of the Elmira Deanery Council of Catholic Women, and the efforts of the Blue Book and Five Boys of the Medal Stories, highly censored by Archbishop Curley, Msgr Fulton Sheen and other Catholic leaders, are now on sale at Woolworth's Five and Ten Cent Store. The women who have worked hard on this project, and all parents and teachers to whom the books will appeal, with these books and Jesus, we venture a huge success.

Catholics In American History

CASIMIR PULASKI

President Roosevelt recently issued a proclamation designating October 11 as General Pulaski Memorial Day. Who was General Pulaski? He was a Pole, a soldier and statesman who served with great skill and heroism in the war of American colonists in the Revolutionary War, sacrificing his life in the assault against the British at Savannah, Georgia, October 9, 1779.

The annual commemoration of Pulaski's death pays tribute to the work of Washington in the cause of the Roman Catholic Church in the United States, in which he said: "Let us not forget the patriotic Poles who took up the cause of liberty during our Revolution, and the historical fact that the first standard of our country was received from the hands of a Roman Catholic lady, Miss Barry, of South Carolina."

Pulaski, a native of Poland, was born March 4, 1748, at Podolia, Poland. He was only 31 years old when he fell mortally wounded by a shot in the upper part of the thigh. He was carried to the ship, Wasp, on the river and was buried at sea. His remains, according to some historians, were buried on Savannah, Georgia. Other historians claim that his remains are in the Pulaski Monument, which has been erected in Savannah in memory of Pulaski's heroic action.
