Catholic Press Defender of Morals Declared in Press Month Messages

Universally acknowledged as desirable, many seem to fail to realize the far more pressing need of controlling the ideas of citizenship...

The Catholic Advertiser, official organ of the Diocese of Wichita, carries a Press Month message from the Most Rev. Augustin J. Schwertner, Bishop of Wichita.

"We need not stress again the importance of the Catholic Press," Bishop Schwertner says. "It must be obvious to every practical Catholic that without our own press the Church would be greatly handicapped in disseminating truth...

The Catholic Press is intended to offset the harmful influence of the secular press, and to inform our Catholic laity of what is taking place in the Catholic world...

APOSTLE OF LEPERS ON U. S. SOIL

Discussion of the poetic merits of Amy Lowell and of Emily Dickinson will occupy members of Rochester Unit Catholic Poetry Society...

As a stimulant to discussion, Mrs. Mildred Olin of Pittsburgh will speak on "Personality Reminiscences of Amy Lowell," and Miss Harriet Hook of "Aspects of the Work of Emily Dickinson."

Services of the dead will be in charge of the meeting, and Miss Elaine Roche will act as secretary.

Archbishop Mitty will celebrate the pontifical Mass of requiem on Friday morning, and the sermon will be preached by the Most Rev. Thomas F. Burke, C. S. P., former head of the Congregation of St. Paul at the Pacific Coast.

Belgium prepares to receive, starting this week, the remains of Father Damien, apostle to the lepers of Molokai, who has been received at Sacred Heart Academy here.

The remains of Father Damien will be taken to Louvain, where high Mass will be celebrated in St. Peter's Church.

Cardinal Ruysschaert will be the honorary president and his Excellency the Most Rev. Clemente Micara, Apostolic Nuncio to Belgium, and David Morris, United States Ambassador to Belgium, are vice-presidents.
