Along the Sports Horizon

By BILL LANG

The fabled gods who rule atop Mount Olympus, the peak of the athletic world, can safely cancel New York University's Olympic basketball bid and pass it on to the conquering Notre Dame Ramblers.

It wasn't so long ago (1925 to be exact) that Notre Dame had the most unusual basketball court in college circles. It was at the old Field House at South Bend where the floor was hard dirt.

Down Notre Dame way they tell a great story of the one and only basketball game of which the "Little Rockies" called a coach.

A schedule which Coach Jimmy Sullivan says "is not as tough as last year" has been adopted by the Aquinas football team for the 1936 season.

The big game, of course, is the Halloween party with Niagara Falls. The Frosh held the only decision registered game of the season.

It's hard in fact it's well nigh impossible to disagree with Bill McCarthy, former Aquinas coach, in his selection of all-star Aquinas basketball teams he coached during his 1922-1927 regime.

McCarthy's year certainly is the best year he ever had. He was always good—always the reliable, always the steady influence, always the most valuable man to the team.

YOUTH GROUPS DEALT BLOW BY NAZIS

The latest "Nazi drive" are still available. The drastic action taken by the German political police obviously is a consequence of the statements made in the recent semi-inaugural negotiations between the German Hierarchy and the Berlin Government.

Radicals Gain Headway
Despite all their efforts, it is all too obvious that the radical elements in Germany are constantly gaining headway and making an open outbreak of Kulturkampf unavoidable at the very moment when more moderate forces are trying their best to make the world believe that freedom of speech and liberty of conscience are unimpaired.

LARGE MISSION SUM
New York City—The New York Archdiocesan Branch of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith contributed the sum of $100,000 in 1935 to the missions. It is an unprecedented sum.

The pennant-bound St. Joseph's team turned in a smashing 27-2 victory over the H. R. A. A. Boosters in the first game of the season.

Rocking the maple for a two-in victory over the H. R. A. A. Boosters in the H. R. A. A. League. The best the Boosters could do was 41-31.

With the end of the Catholic League pennant chase only seven weeks away the St. Mary's Club peeped a single game off the six game lead of the H. R. A. A. team.

McCarthy's year certainly is the best year he ever had. He was always good—always the reliable, always the steady influence, always the most valuable man to the team.

K. of C. 'Forward Movement' Launched by 4 Councils Here

Definite steps to direct the manpower of the Knights of Columbus into increased Catholic activity and into more intensive progress for the order were taken Monday evening in Rochester when Supreme Special Agent John P. Daney of Boston brought a message of nation-wide importance to representatives of four councils convening in Columbus Civic Center Building.

Announcing plans for a "Forward Movement" being initiated by the Supreme Council Special Agent Daney outlined objectives to carry on the successful Mobilization Campaign conducted by the knights last year.
