Along the Sports Horizon

By BILL LANG

The fabled gods who rule atop Mount Olympus, the peak of the athletic world, can safely cancel New York University's Olympic basketball bid and pass it on to the conquering Notre Dame Ramblers.

It wasn't so long ago (1925 to be exact) that Notre Dame had the most unusual basketball court in college circles. It was at the old Field House at South Bend where the floor was hard dirt. When the visitors objected to dribbling around on such a surface, they were moved to the South Bend Y.M.C.A. court which had a realizing of 1,000 feet.

Down Notre Dame way they tell a great story of the first and only basketball game of which the "Little Rockies" were the victors. Some of the best football players at Notre Dame turned out to be crack sure performers in these years although the public was hardly aware of the fact.

A schedule which Coach Jimmy Sullivan says "is not as tough as last year" has been adopted by the Aquinas football team for the 1936 season.

The big game, of course, is the Halloween party with Niagara Falls. The Frosh held the only decision registered game of the season. The Brighton High team, rival for three years, is missing from the schedule.

It's hard in fact it's well nigh impossible to disagree with Bill McCarthy, former Aquinas coach, in his selection of all-star Aquinas basketball teams he coached during his 1922-1927 regime.

McCarthy's own certainty is shown in this article by Schmitt, Kennedy, Sullivan and Schaaf. Can think of "bad nights" these four had but I cannot recall one that McNally had. He was always good—always the reliable, always the steady influence, always the most valuable man to the team. His nights were all "on". Carl I say more!

YOUTH GROUPS DEALT BLOW BY NAZIS

The latest "Nazi drive" are still available. The drastic action taken by the German political police obviously is a consequence of the statements made in the recent semi-inaugural negotiations between the German Hierarchy and the Berlin Government.

Radicals Gain Headway
Despite all their efforts, it is too obvious that the radical elements in Germany are constantly gaining headway and making an open outbreak of Kulturkampf unavoidable at the very moment when more moderate forces are trying their best to make the world believe that freedom of speech and liberty of conscience are unimpaired and that, therefore, opposition to Catholic activities participating in the summer Olympic games is not justified.

LARGE MISSION SUM
New York City—The New York Archdiocesan Branch of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith contributed the sum of $100,000 in 1935 to the missions. It is an unprecedented sum.

The pennant-bound St. Joseph's team turned in a smashing 27-2 victory over the H.R.A.A. Boosters in the past week.

Backing the maps for a two-day relay over the H.R.A.A. Boosters in the H.R.A.A. League. The best of the Boosters could do was 41-35.

With the end of the Catholic League pennant chase only seven weeks away the St. Mary's Club pooled a single game off the six game lead of the H.R.A.A. team this week with a triple victory over Blessed Sacrament while St. Boniface boys managed to win one of the first of the games.

K. of C. 'Forward Movement' Launched by 4 Councils Here

Definite steps to direct the manpower of the Knights of Columbus into increased Catholic activity and into more intensive progress for the order were taken Monday evening in Rochester when Supreme Special Agent John P. Daney of Boston brought a message of nation-wide importance to representatives of four councils convening in Columbus Civic Center Building.

Announcing plans for a "Forward Movement" being initiated by the Supreme Council Special Agent Daney outlined objectives to carry on the successful Mobilization campaign conducted by the knights last year.

As we look at it, there are two great problems today before the Catholic Church. The one is the Christian education of the young, and the other is the determination of the part which the Church must play in the industrial revolution.

Boys Their Interests PAROCHIAL BASKETBALL LEAGUE

Schedule for Feb. 21
Holy Redeemer vs St. Mary's at 8:30, 7 o'clock Referee, Richard

The seemingly unbeaten bunch of schoolboys from the Holy Redeemer parish, who were last week end when they took the St. Theresa five into camp by a 15-5 score last Friday and last Sunday when they romped over the St. Theresa aggregation to the tune of 28-6 games.

Coach Paul Bresca's St. Mary's Boys Home team stayed in the running for the second half pennant when they won an exciting win, 28-17, over the Nazareth team.
