Crying In The Dark

By EILEEN LEARY

Don't remind me that I can't have my cake and eat it, too! Writes a boy who thinks the marriage bond should be held too tightly.

Modern marriage is proof. Organized and lullabies are drowned out by popular jazz tunes.

PEN INTIMATE CHATS WITH THE PALS CATHOLIC GIRL by Susan Russell

ALONG LIFE'S WAY My dear Girls, This seems to be a time when you are all taking stock of your lives.

MARRIAGE AND DIVORCE Before we go further into this question of unmarried Catholic women, let us discuss and consider the attitude of modern society toward marriage.

Rochester Diocesan Council of the National Council of Catholic Women

Office: 536 Columbus Civic Centre, 50 Chestnut Street

We congratulate the Catholic Courier on the success of its Press Crusade, and on the various improvements that have thus been made possible.

Members of diocesan councils or of affiliated organizations need not be urged to read their diocesan paper.

I cannot get out of a marriage easily from all I hear and see and read a happy marriage is rare and I am not one of the lucky ones.

Recently a subscriber wrote me that she was having a hard time of understanding the divorce law.

But it is not only the law that is hard to understand, but the fact that there are so many unhappy marriages.

Let us learn the truth about the subject of divorce and let us do so better off without it.

Let us learn the truth about the subject of divorce and let us do so better off without it.

Let us learn the truth about the subject of divorce and let us do so better off without it.
