

Confraternity of Christian Doctrine REFERENCE READING FOR STUDY CLUB MEMBERS

THE CATHOLIC COURIER publishes the following excerpts from the reading suggested for Study Club members under Lesson Seven in the outline of their text, "The Cerebellum of the Mass." Reference material for Lesson Eight will be published next week.

THE MASS - DUNNEEY
MEDITATIONS
Immediately after the Dominus vobiscum the priest, standing in the right of the altar, extends his hands, bows to the cross, and reads in the Mass: "The Collect. While he says the Collect he holds his hands up as if in appeal."

EPITAPHE
After the Collect comes the Epistle, or, as it is sometimes called, the Lesson. It is a little piece of Holy Scripture which is taken generally from the New Testament, especially from St. Paul's Epistles.

GRADUAL
The priest, kneeling in the same position, reads the Gradual. A tract and sequences are read according to the time. The Gradual is a sort of anthem or song woven of short lines taken from the Scriptures.

GOSEPEL
Having read the Epistle and what follows, the priest comes to the middle of the altar, where, inclining his head, he reads the Gospel.

Sunday's Mass A GUIDE TO THE LITURGICAL YEAR

By THE REV. PAUL BISSARD (Editor, The Leaflet Abroad)
ROSE SUNDAY
Lent will soon be over. The joy of Easter is nearer than before. The middle of Lent is the Christian family stops for a rest. Today is a sort of little Easter. Instead of violet vestments the priest wears rose-colored vestments.

PRAYER TO HOLY TRINITY
The bread and wine have been blessed, and now the washing of the hands which will soon bear the Sacrament of God. The preliminary of the sacrifice will soon be completed, not yet. With head bowed in humility the priest makes the offering of the gifts to the Holy Trinity. The priest, kneeling, kisses the altar, as if to salute Jesus Christ. Next, he turns around and greets the people with "Gloria Patri" asking the prayers of the congregation that the sacrifice they are offering may be pleasing to Almighty God. The prayer is a fresh devotional addition introduced during the Middle Ages. It was then a new invitation to pray, a special request for the prayers of the people.

After the Orate Fratres the priest, with outstretched hands recites the secret prayer. This is a true eucharistic prayer in which God is asked to accept our gifts and give us in return His grace.

As soon as the priest has ended the Secret prayer, he raises his voice in the "Per omnia secula" to let the people know that the Preface is about to begin. The Preface is a very ancient, simple prayer, undoubtedly one of the most beautiful in the liturgy.
