Announce Committees Named To Function At Penn Yan Gathering

"One of the most important matters to come before the convention will be the plans for the open air rally in Rochester in June," said the Rev. F. William Stauffer, spiritual director and Pastor of Holy Redeemer Church, in discussing the coming fourth annual convention of the Rochester Diocesan Holy Name Union to be held in Penn Yan, Sunday, April 19.

The union has been three years since it was held in Rochester. Father Stauffer continued, "and we believe that it is a most appropriate time for the members of the Holy Name Society to make a public profession of faith in Him whose Holy Name they are pledged to honor in every way. We are sure that the men of the society will welcome the news that the rally is to be held in Rochester this summer. Further details will be presented at the convention."

Committees for the fourth annual convention of the Rochester Diocesan Holy Name Union on April 19 are announced today. The union embraces all the Holy Name Societies in the diocese and each society is entitled to send four delegates and the spiritual director to the convention. This year's convention is to be held in St. Michael's Church and hall, Penn Yan, and will open with Solemn Benediction at 2 p. m. More than 400 delegates are expected from all parts of the diocese.

Committees named are:
Committee on resolutions: Philip H. Donnelly, chairman, St. Monica's; Paul Ryan, St. Mary; Walter Maxwell, Corpus Christi; Anthony M. Hattell, Holy Family; Fred J. Welch, St. Mary, Auburn; M. F. Buckley, St. Michael, Penn Yan.
Committee on credentials: John W. Diringer, chairman, Corpus Christi; Roy W. Crisley, St. John the Evangelist; Joseph Antonino, Our Lady of Sorrows; Edward Denstedt, Holy Family; John Hyland, St. Michael, Penn Yan.
The committee on arrangements is headed by the Rev. John G. Killen, pastor of St. Michael's Church, Penn Yan. He is being assisted by the officers of St. Michael's Holy Name Society.
Present officers of the union are: The Rev. F. W. Stauffer, spiritual director; the Rev. A. F. Florack, assistant spiritual director; the Rev. L. A. Jones, spiritual director, Auburn; the Rev. L. W. Green, spiritual director, Corning.

Bishop Leech To Talk On National Broadcast

Washington (NC) The Most Rev. George L. Leech, Bishop of

Harrisburg will be the speaker on the "Church of the Air" program of the Columbia Broadcasting System on Sunday, May 13. It was announced at the offices of the organization here today.

Rochester Jubilee Singers popular entertainers will give a concert of negro spirituals in the hall of the Church of the Annunciation Monday evening, April 20, under the auspices of the St. Peter Claver Society, local organization for colored people.

The Jubilee Singers, who have given concerts in many cities of Western New York as well as in Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan, and Wisconsin, received a favorable reception for their singing during the meeting on Interracial Justice sponsored by the St. Peter Claver Society at Columbus Civic Centre Auditorium.

An effort is being made by the singers to present the most popular spirituals. Those wishing to request a certain number are asked to communicate with Mr. Ralph Coleman, 19 Winter Street.

The following singers and musicians will be in the program: Ralph Coleman, first tenor and director; Campbell Taylor, second tenor; Ray Taylor, bass; Gerald Coleman, baritone; and Miss Hazel Curtis, pianist.

There will be no reserved seats but all are requested to obtain their tickets as soon as possible so that ample seating space may be provided. Tickets may be obtained from Reverend George Weimann, 809 Clinton Avenue, South O. J. Greene, two Park Street or any member of the St. Peter Claver Society. Tickets will also be sold at the door.

Proceeds are to be added to the society fund for the purpose of providing a more centrally located permanent meeting place.

George J. Nier, Speaker At Holy Name Meeting
Holy Name Society of Holy Apostles Church will meet in the school hall Monday, April 13 at 8 p. m. George J. Nier, Rochester attorney, former member of the group, will be the principal speaker. His topic will be the "Construction of the United States."

Surprise entertainment will follow the meeting. The Holy Apostles Merry-Makers will furnish the musical part of the program.
